

MARCH TO '76

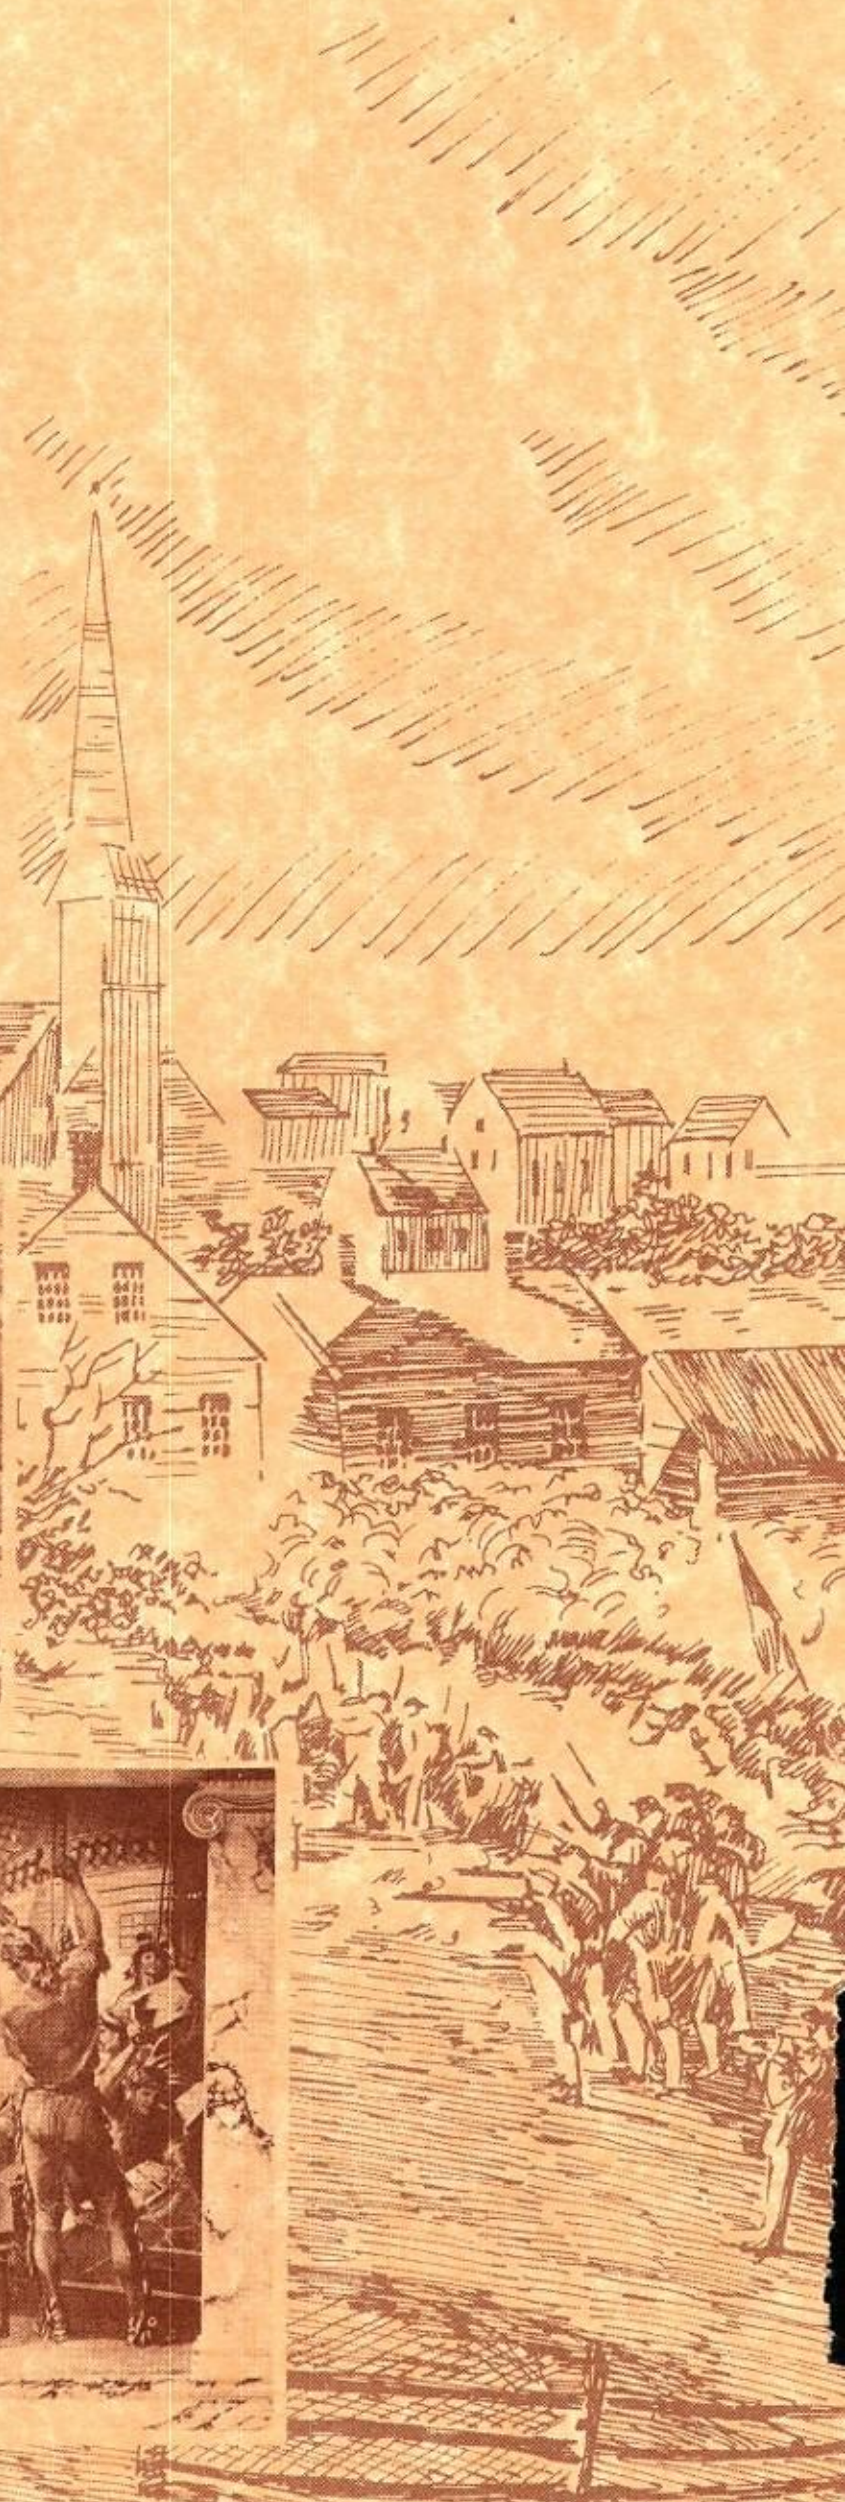

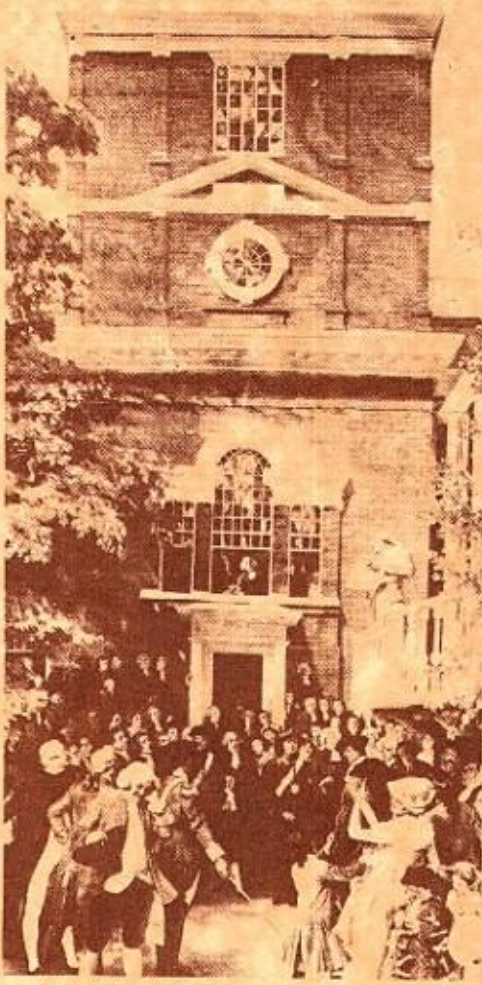

IN CONGRESS, July 4,
1776
The Continental Congress
declared the Independence of the United States of America.

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, in such a case, dictates that慎重 should be exercised; and that no step should be undertaken which is fraught with the danger of inviting the resentment of the rest of the Nation, or of embroiling us with foreign Powers. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce us to absolute Tyranny, it is our duty, to throw off such Government, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. We declare, therefore, that the United States are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection with them is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as the great Principles of the Declaration of Independence have been solemnly affirmed by these United States from time to time, it is necessary that they should be reiterated on the present occasion, in order to manifest to the whole of Mankind, that the high Sensations of this great American People are still unaltered towards Liberty and Independence.

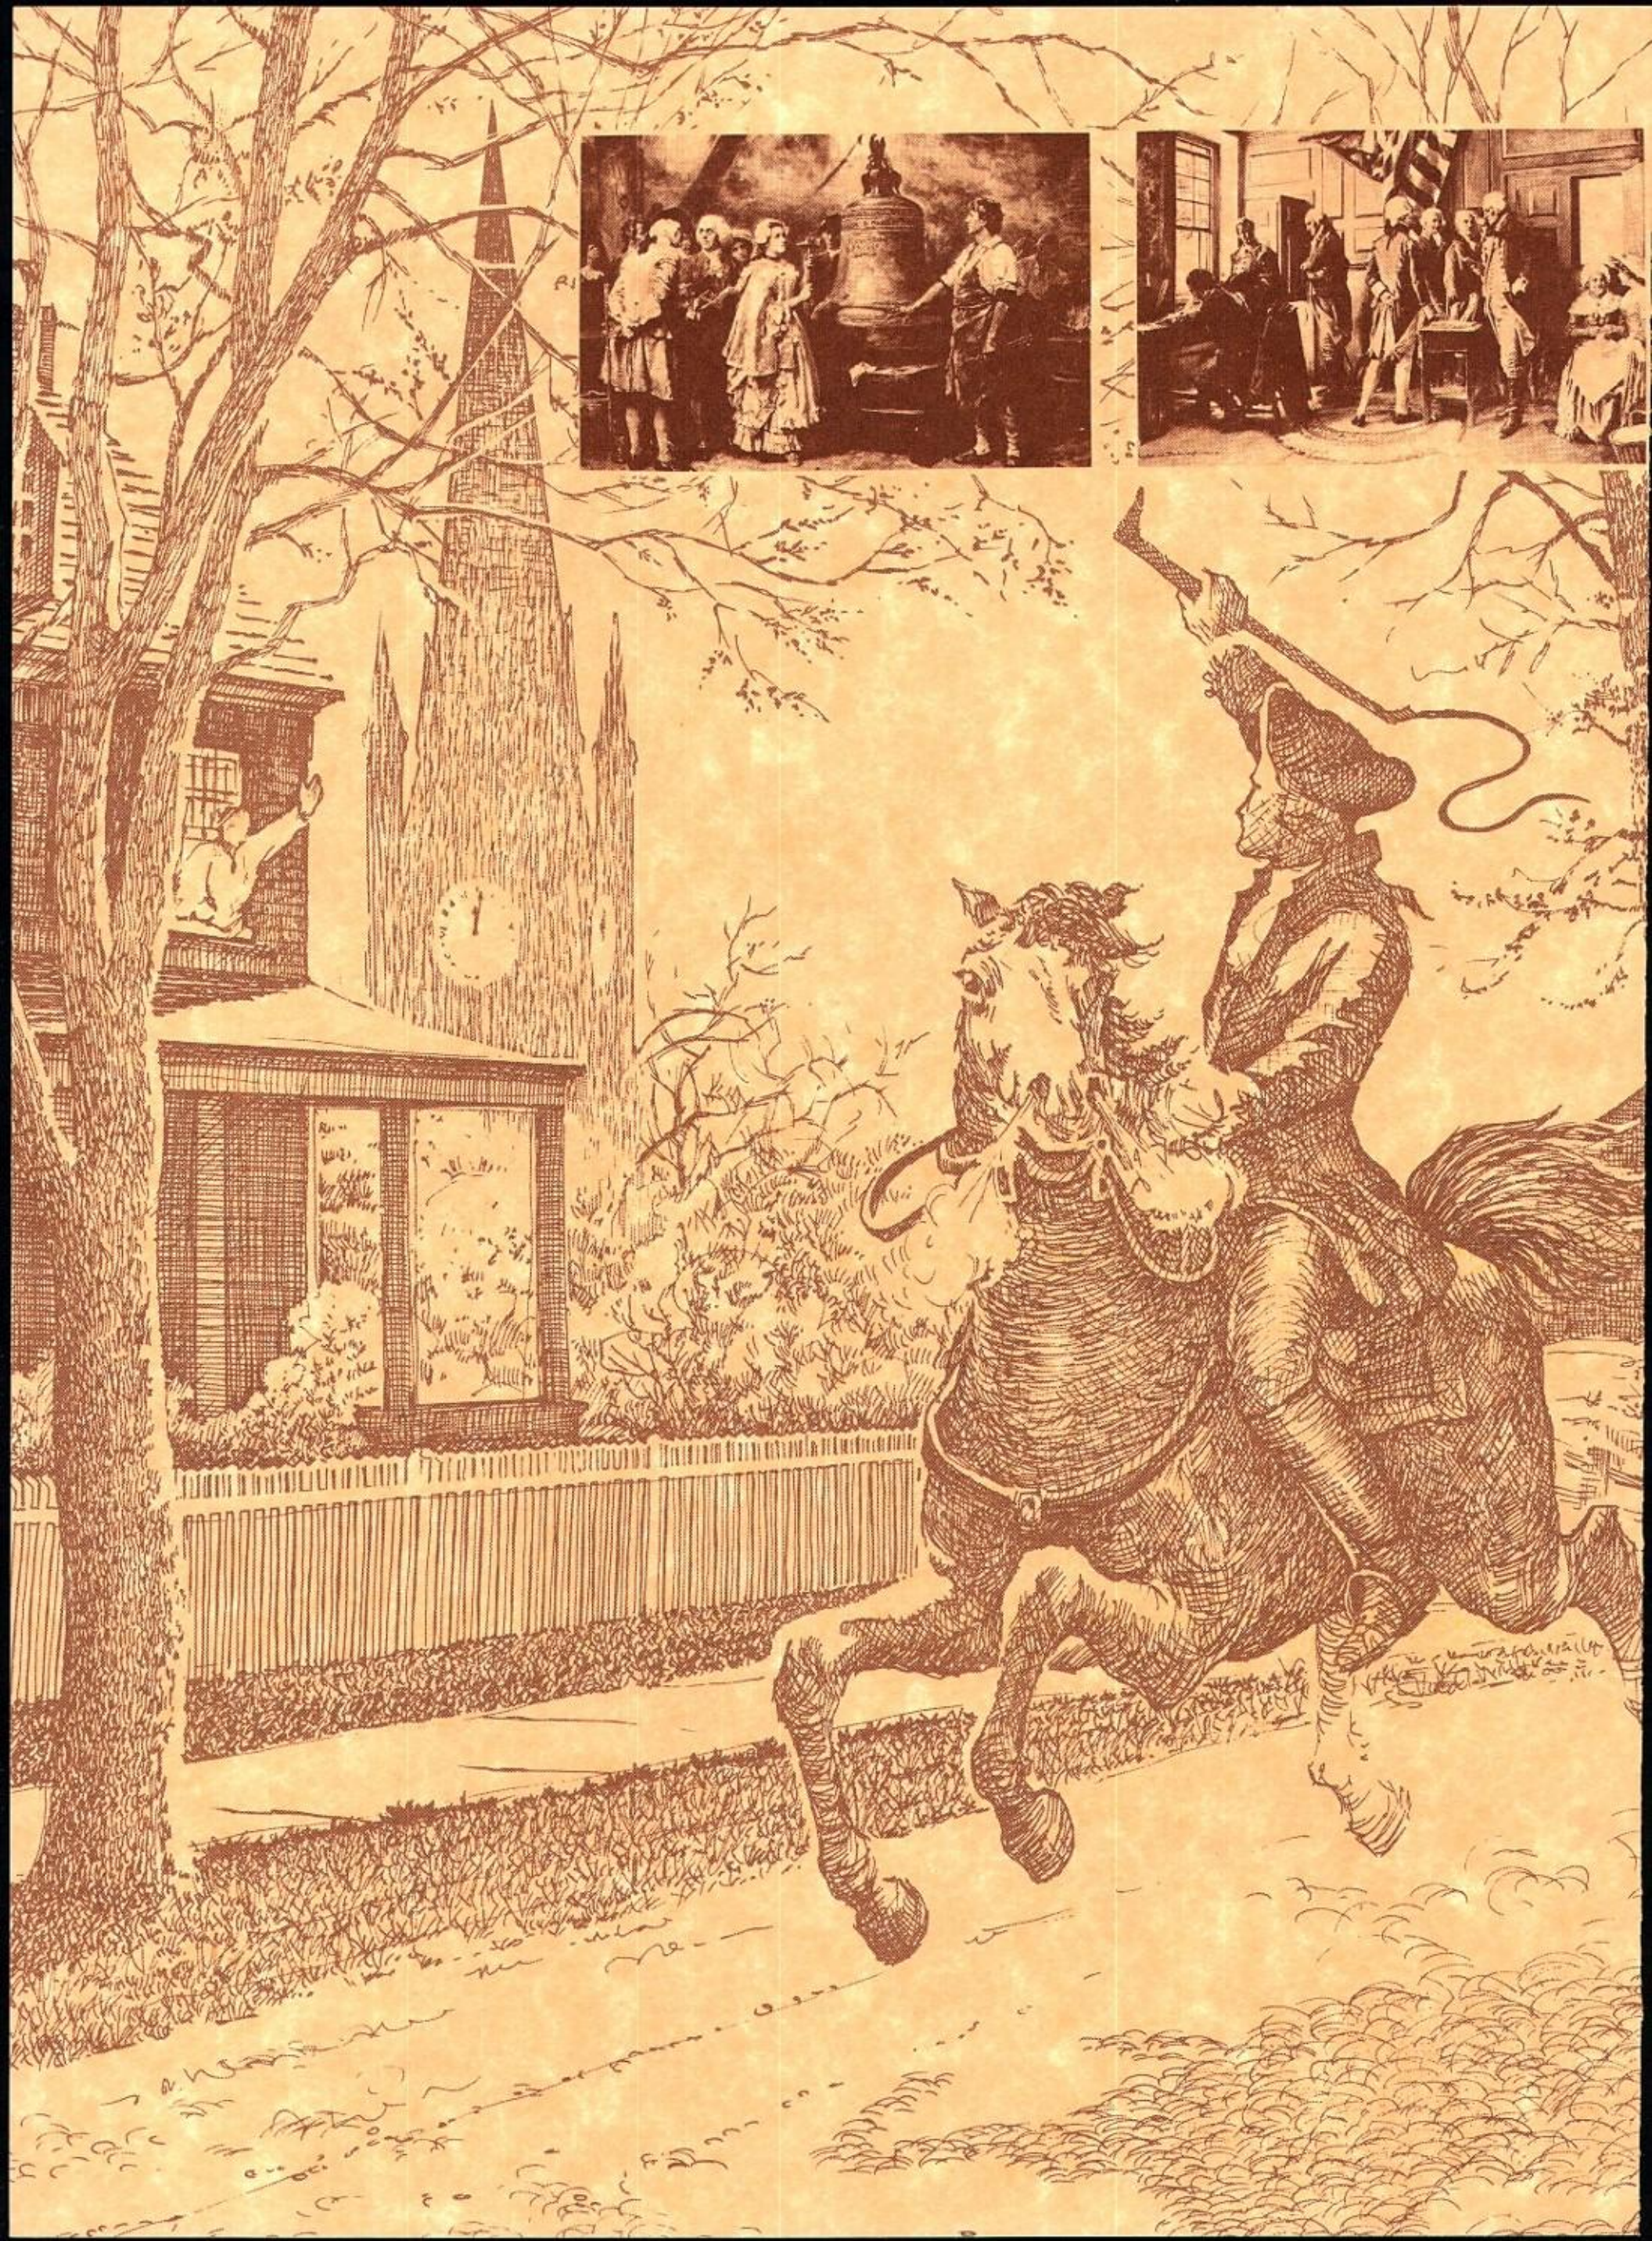

A CELEBRATION...
TWO HUNDRED YEARS
OF A NATION

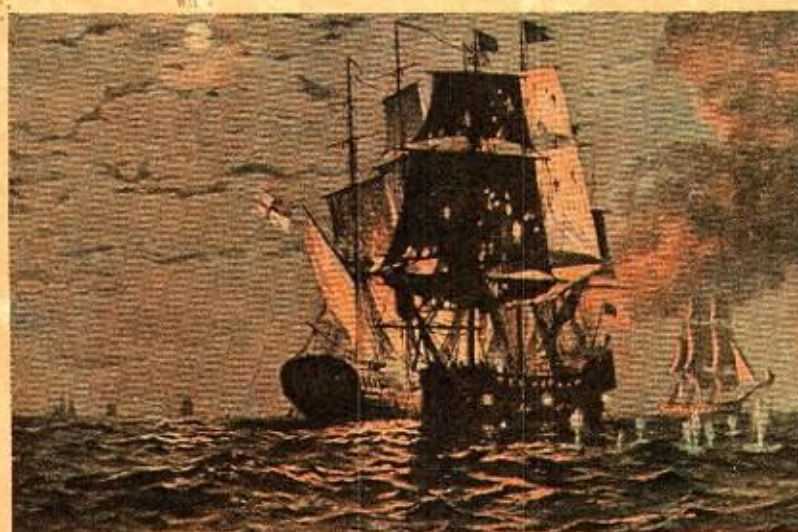

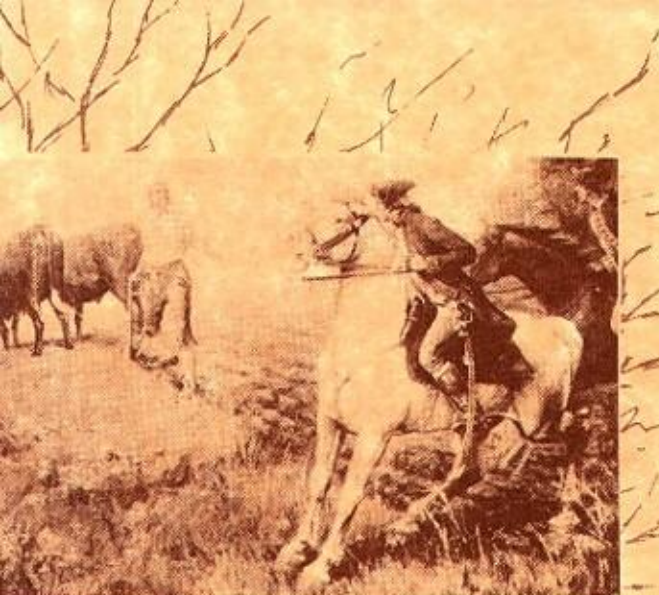

The idea of the original thirteen colonies and their leaders was born out of a passion to be free—to chart their own destiny of building a country out of this thin fabric called Freedom.

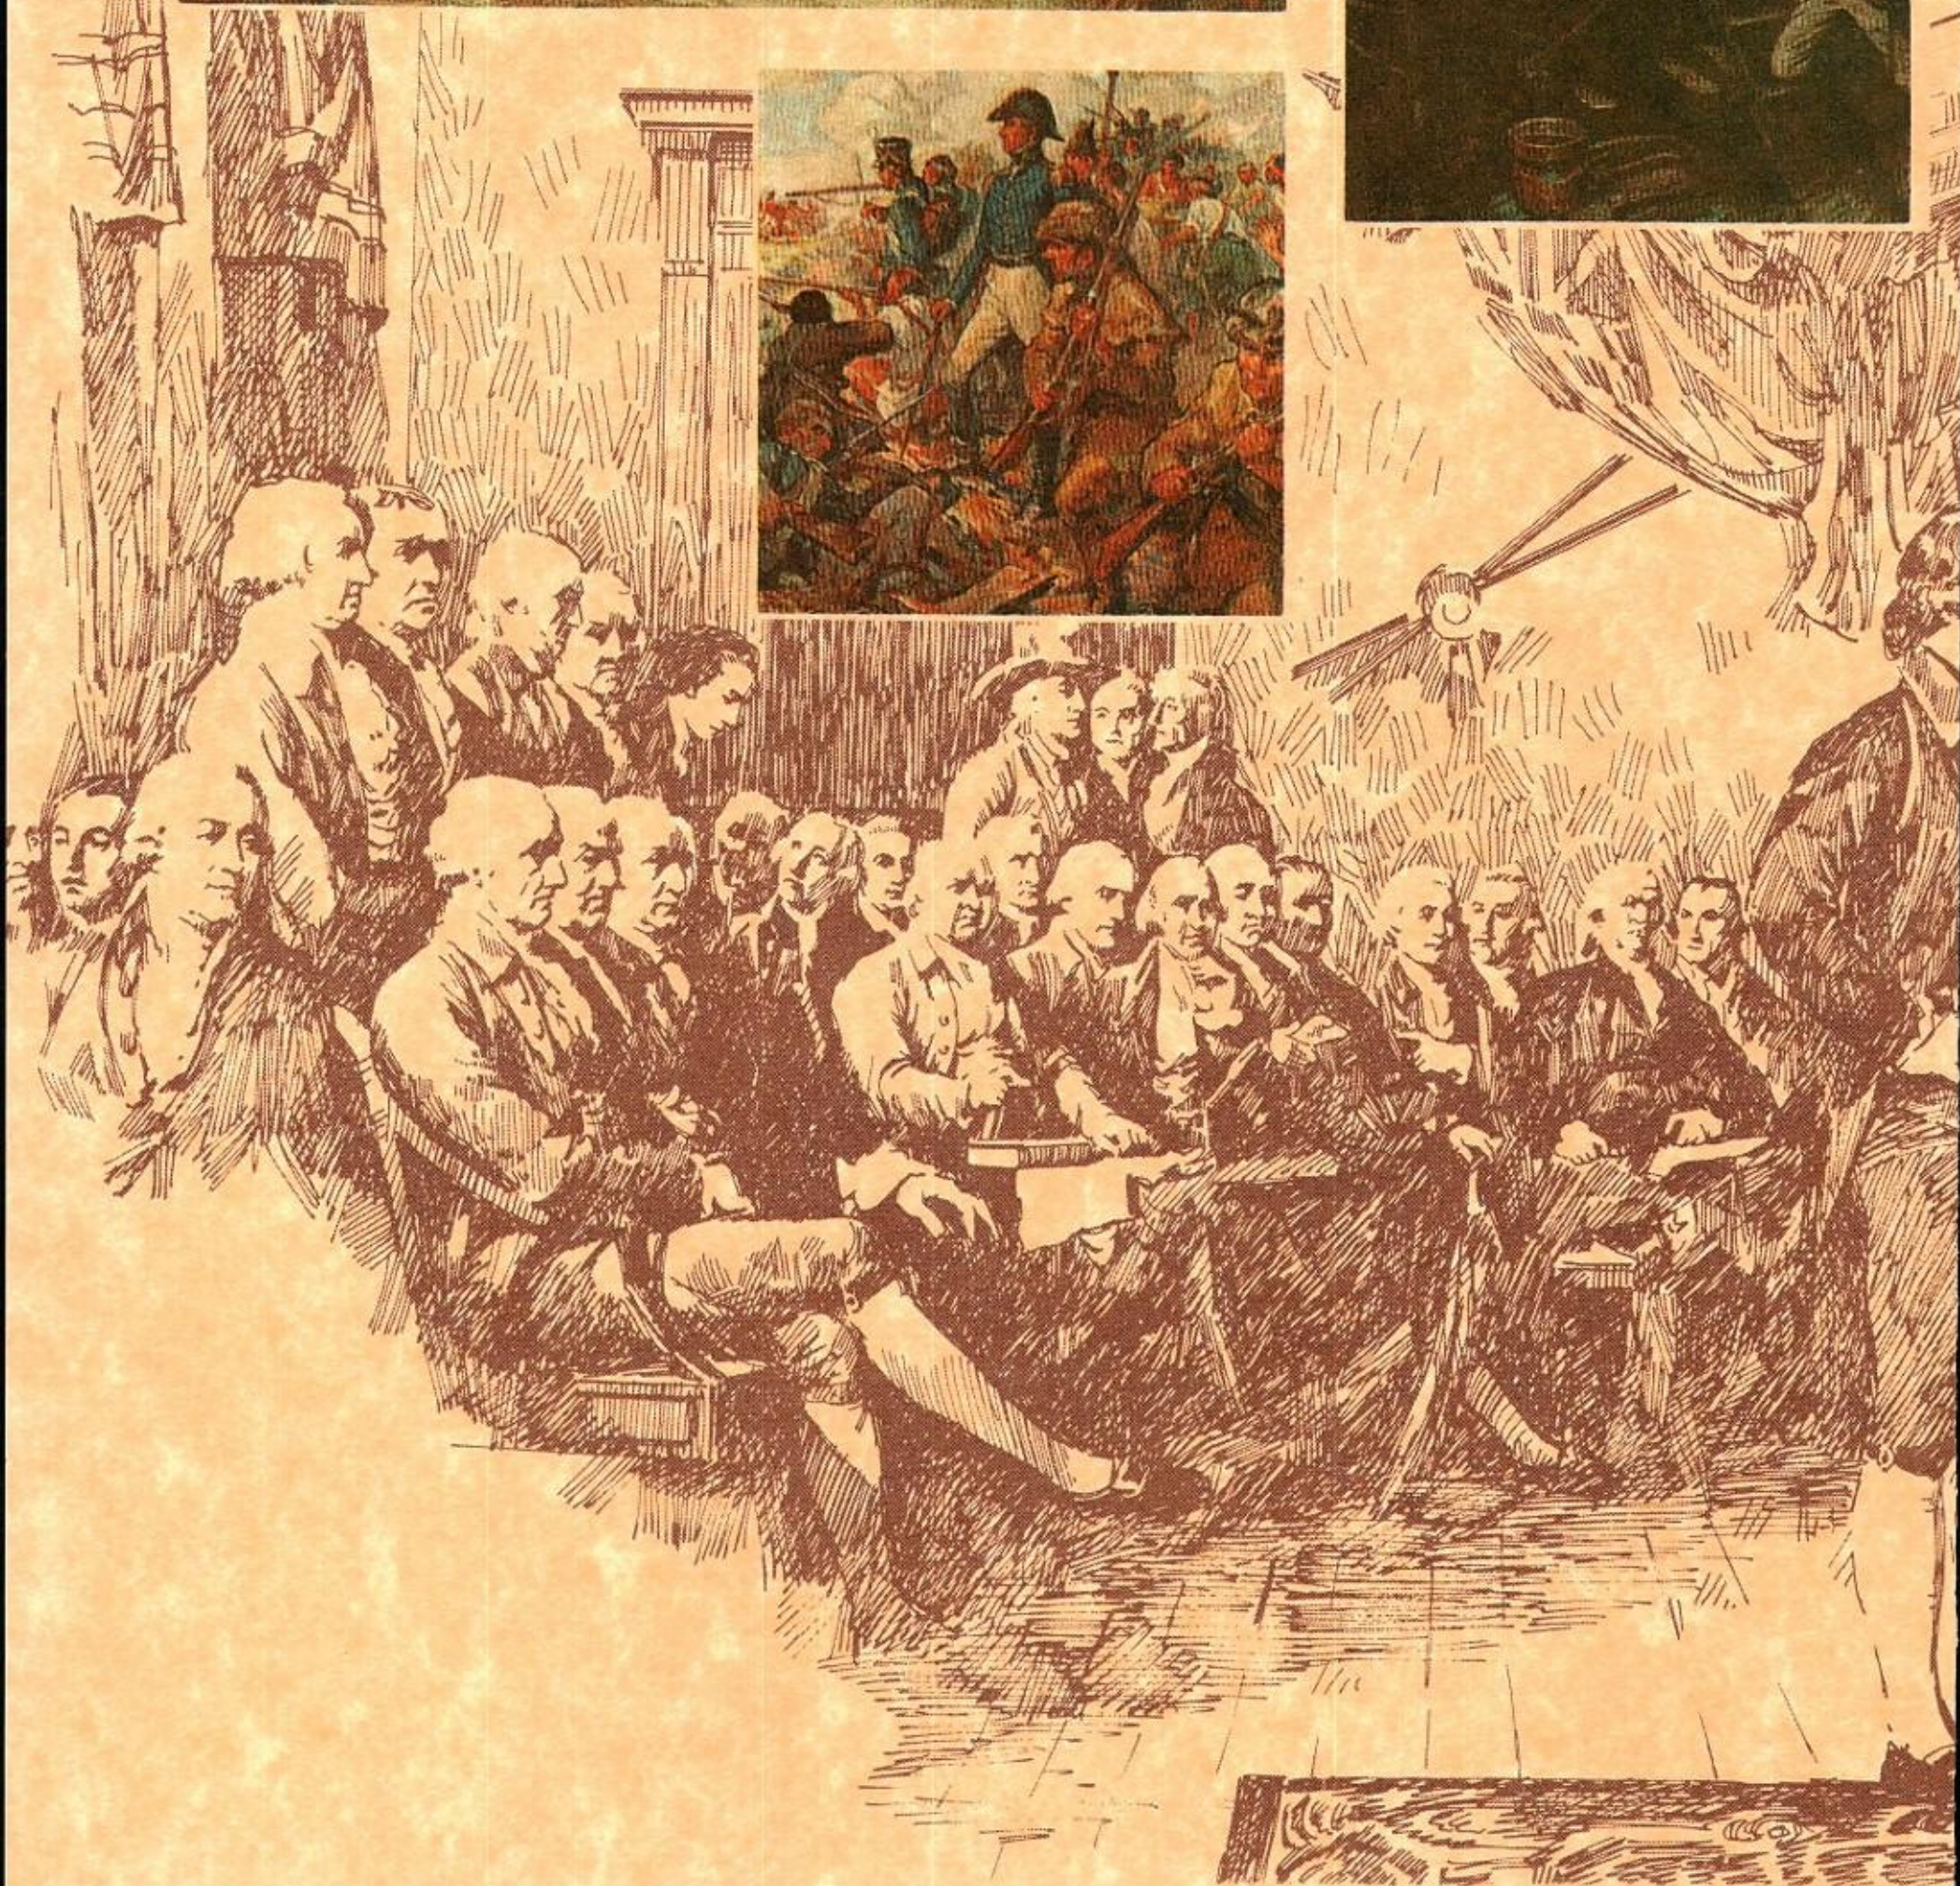

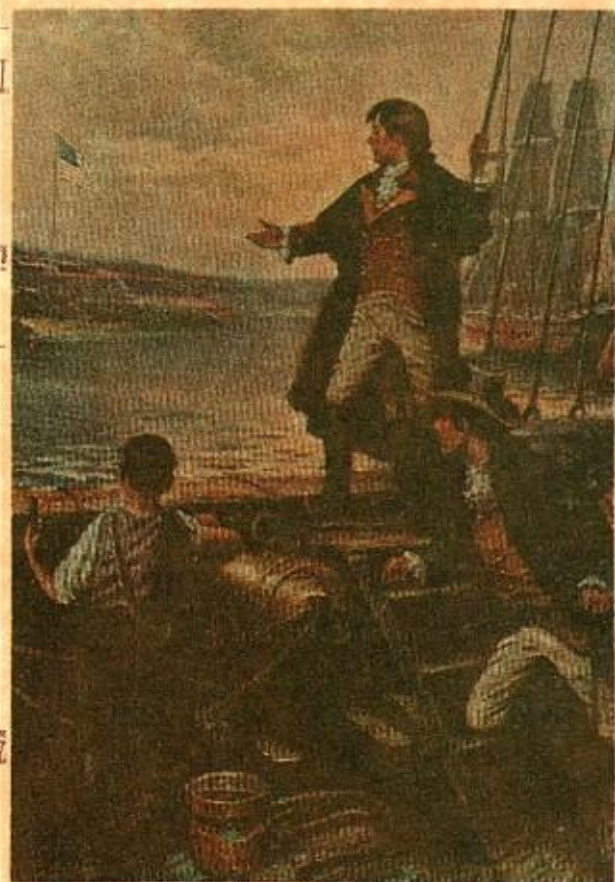

The break from England was not to come easily, as this fledgling was viewed as a serious threat to the tentacles of the vast and far-flung British Empire.

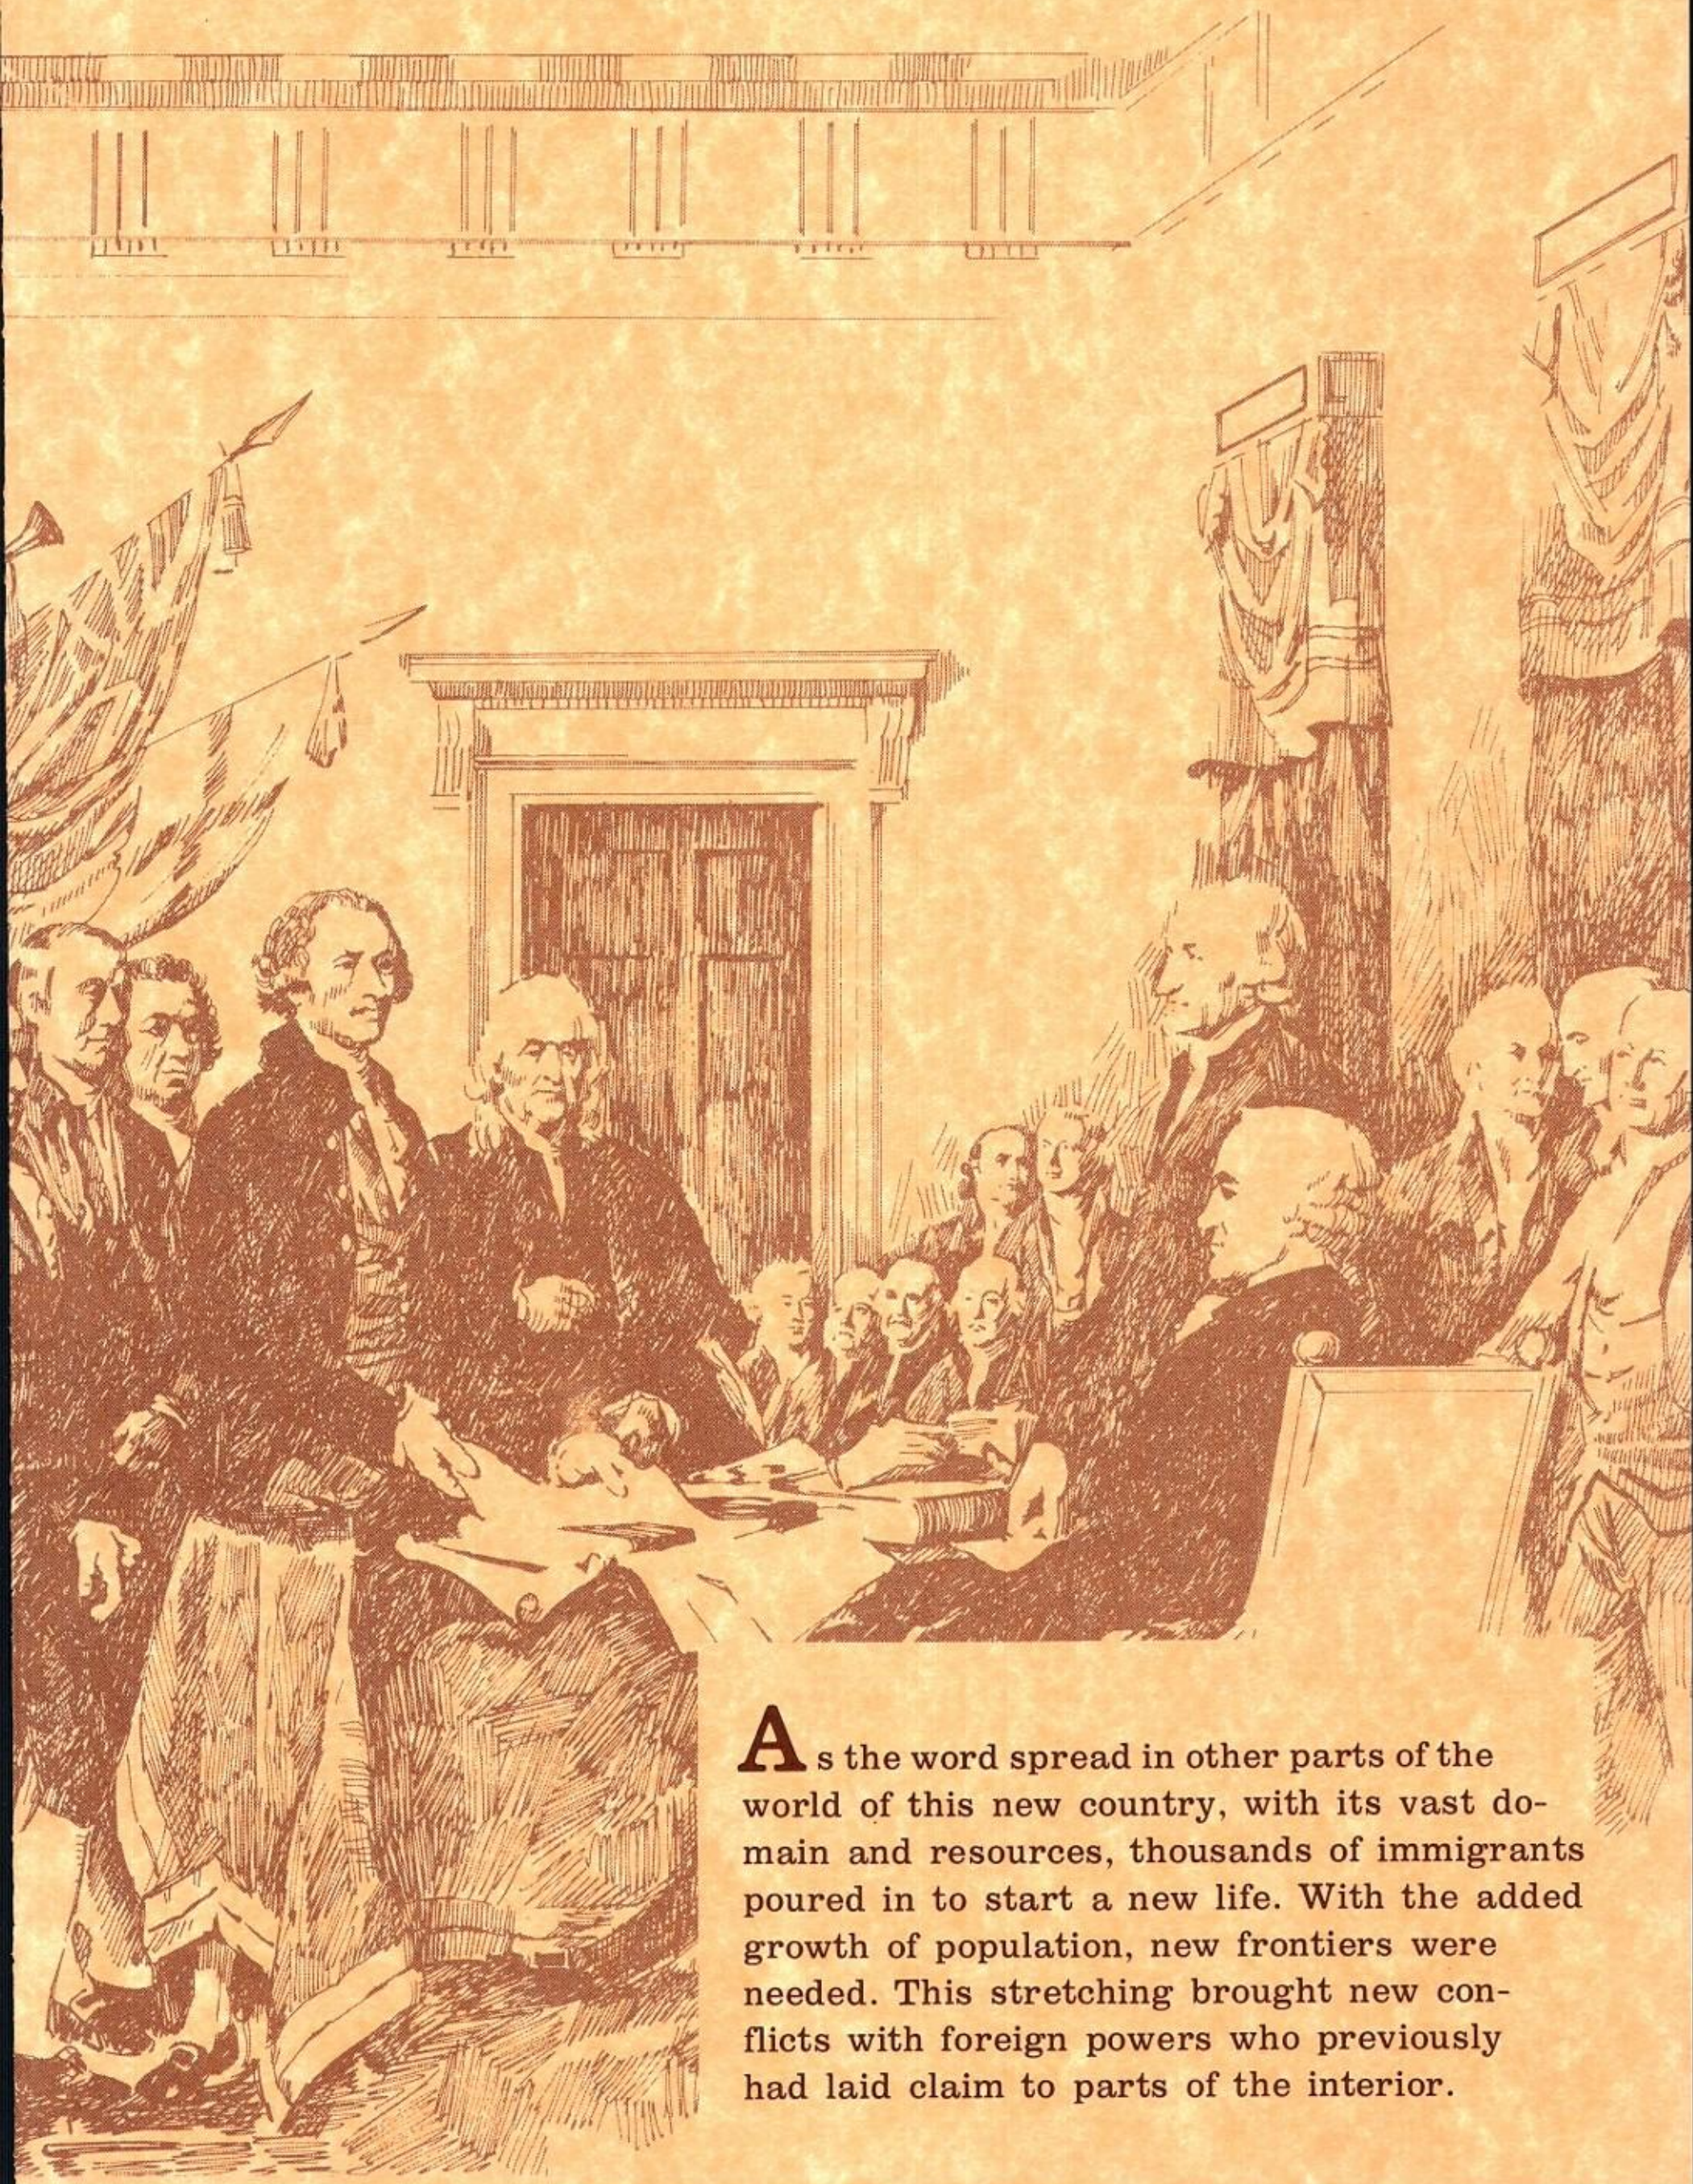

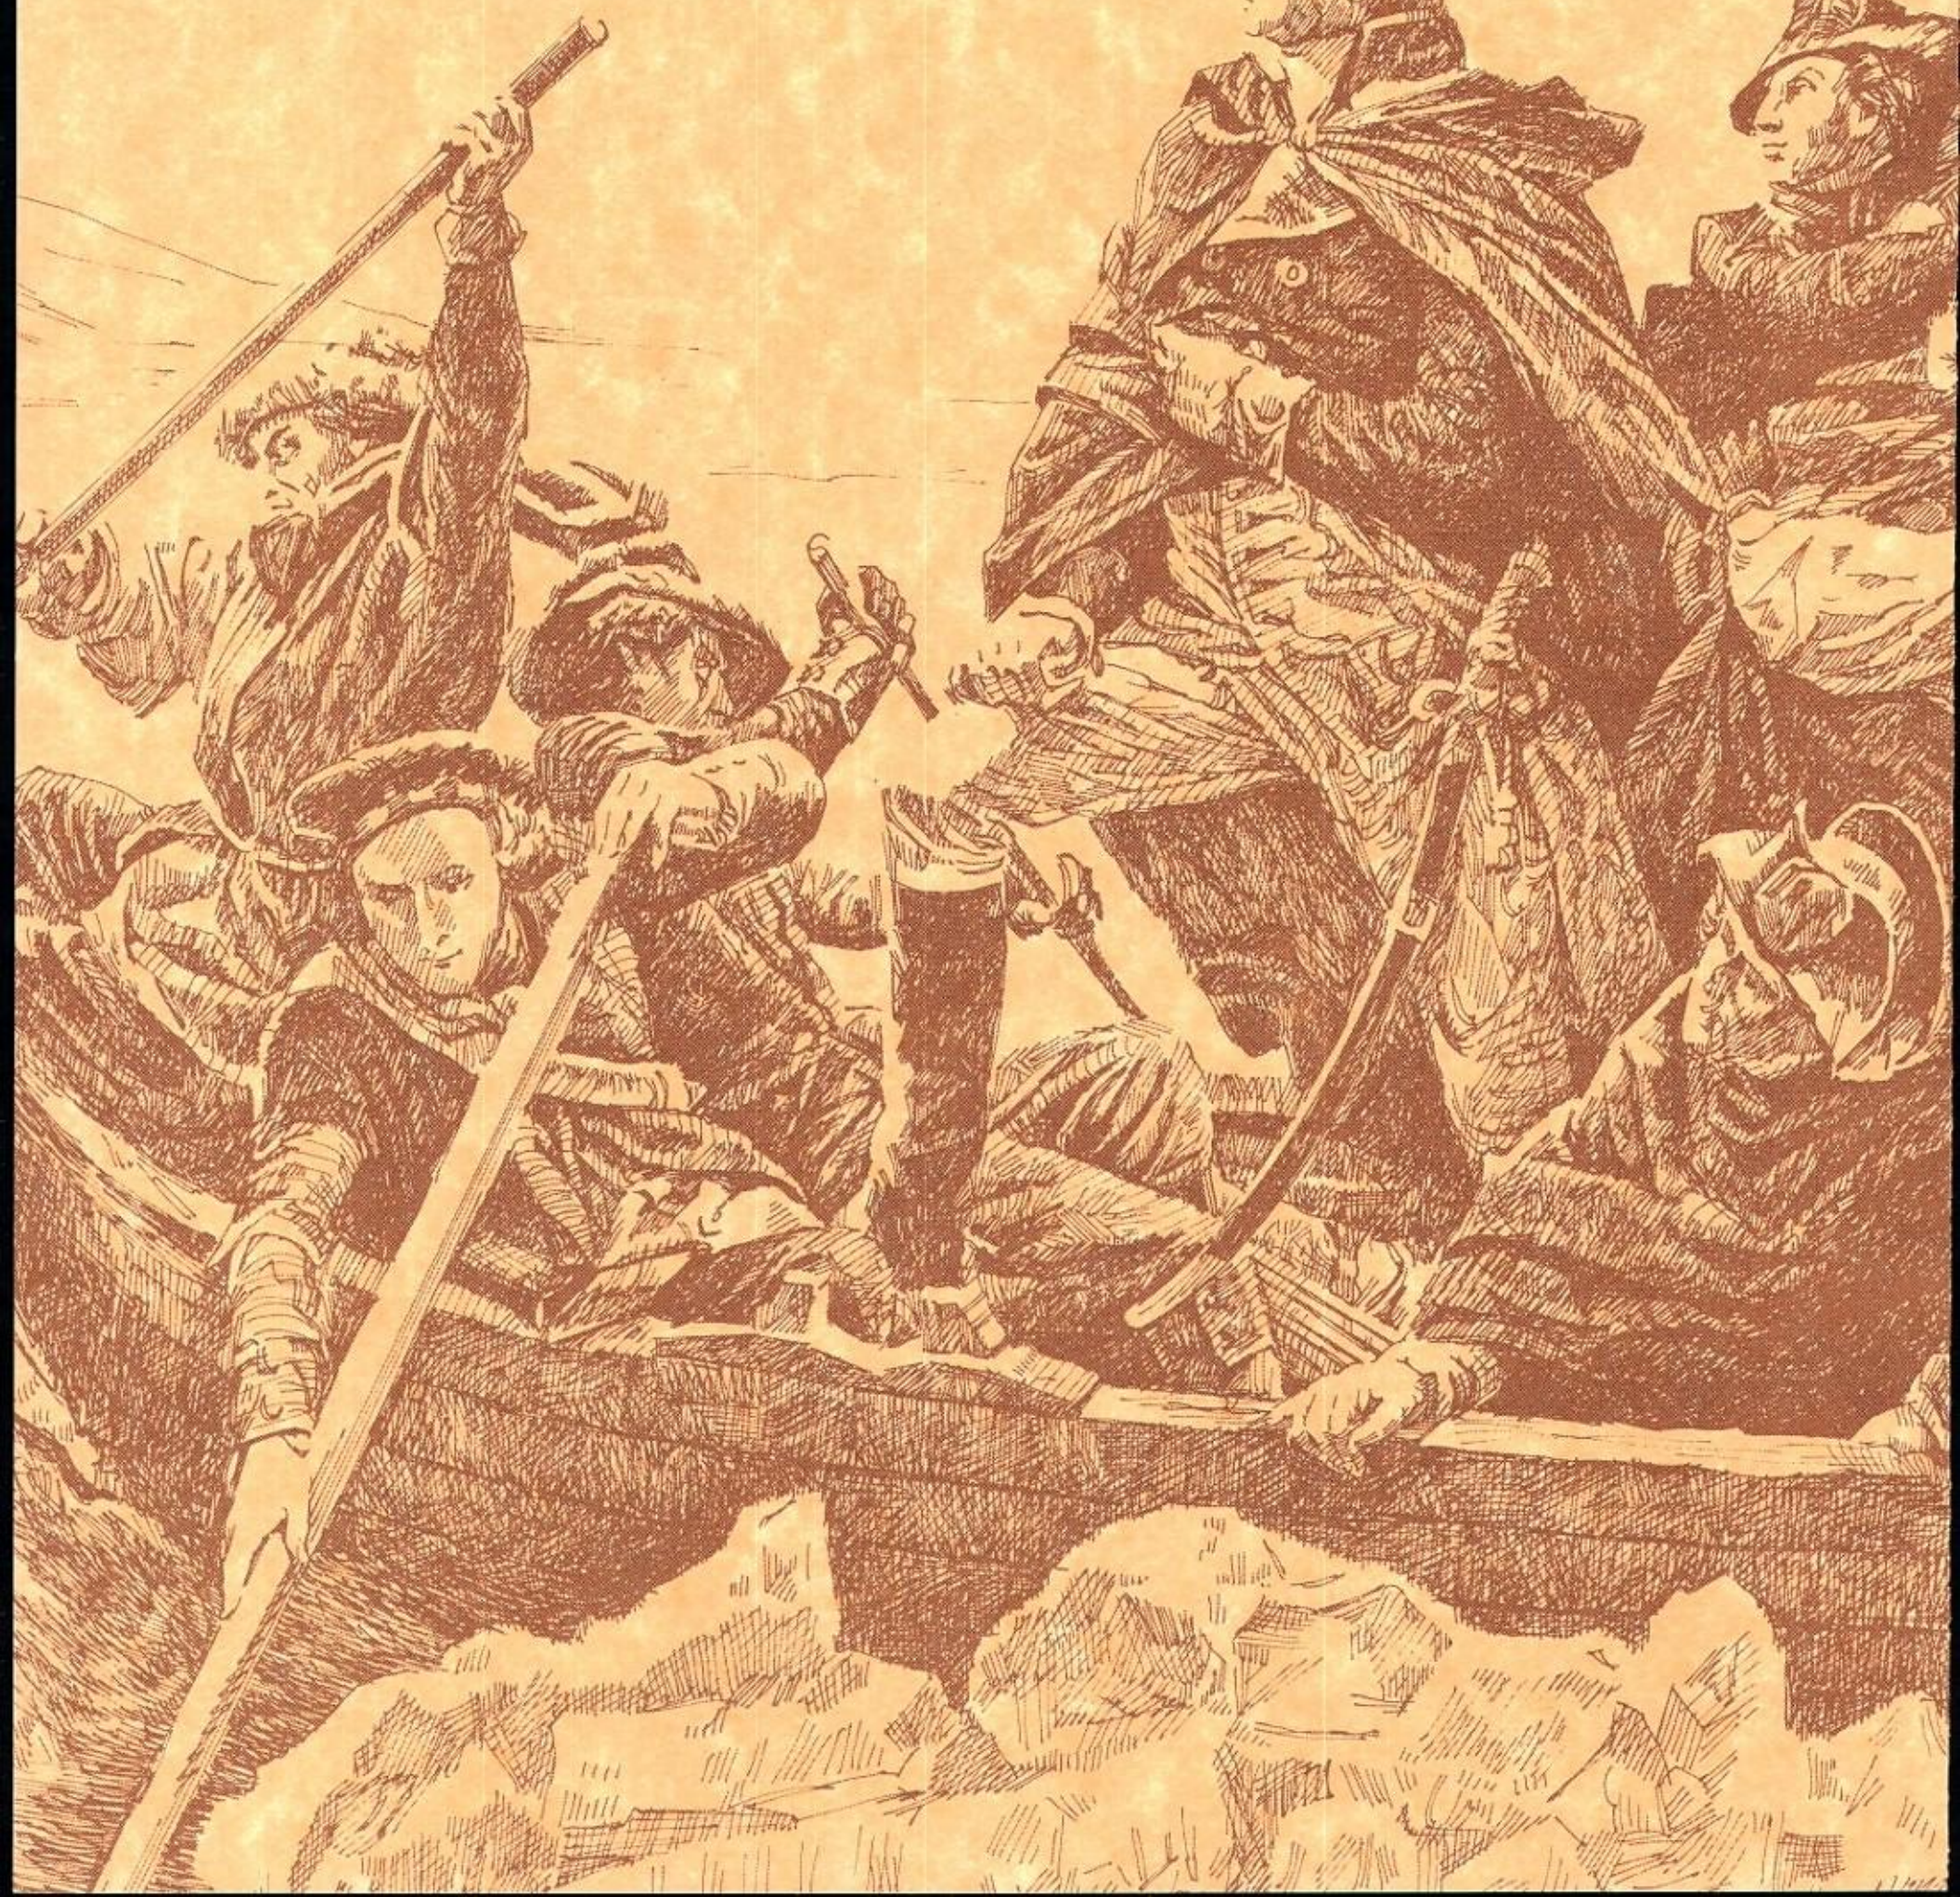

Patriots rose from every corner of the struggling country. Help came from other European countries to add to the flame of breaking the grip of England. Farmers, fishermen, cobblers and men from every walk of life took up their arms to defend this new-felt right to be free. As the smoke began to clear, ideas on organizing this diversity of colonies into a coalition of united states began to take shape. The form of a Constitution and Bill of Rights was molded by statesmen who previously were nonexistent.

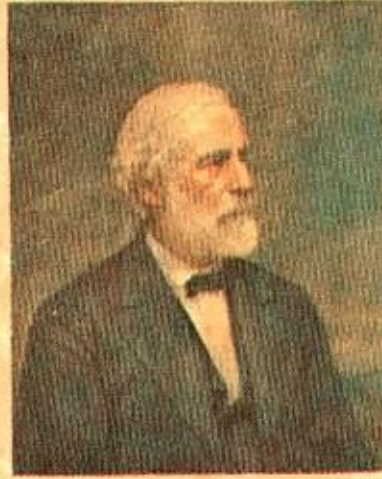

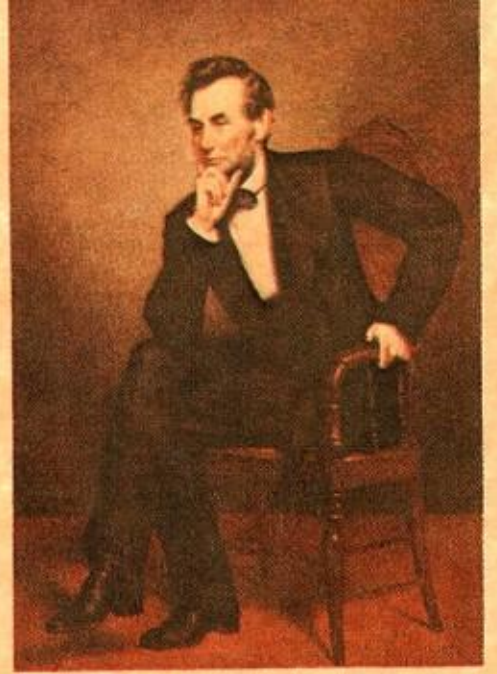

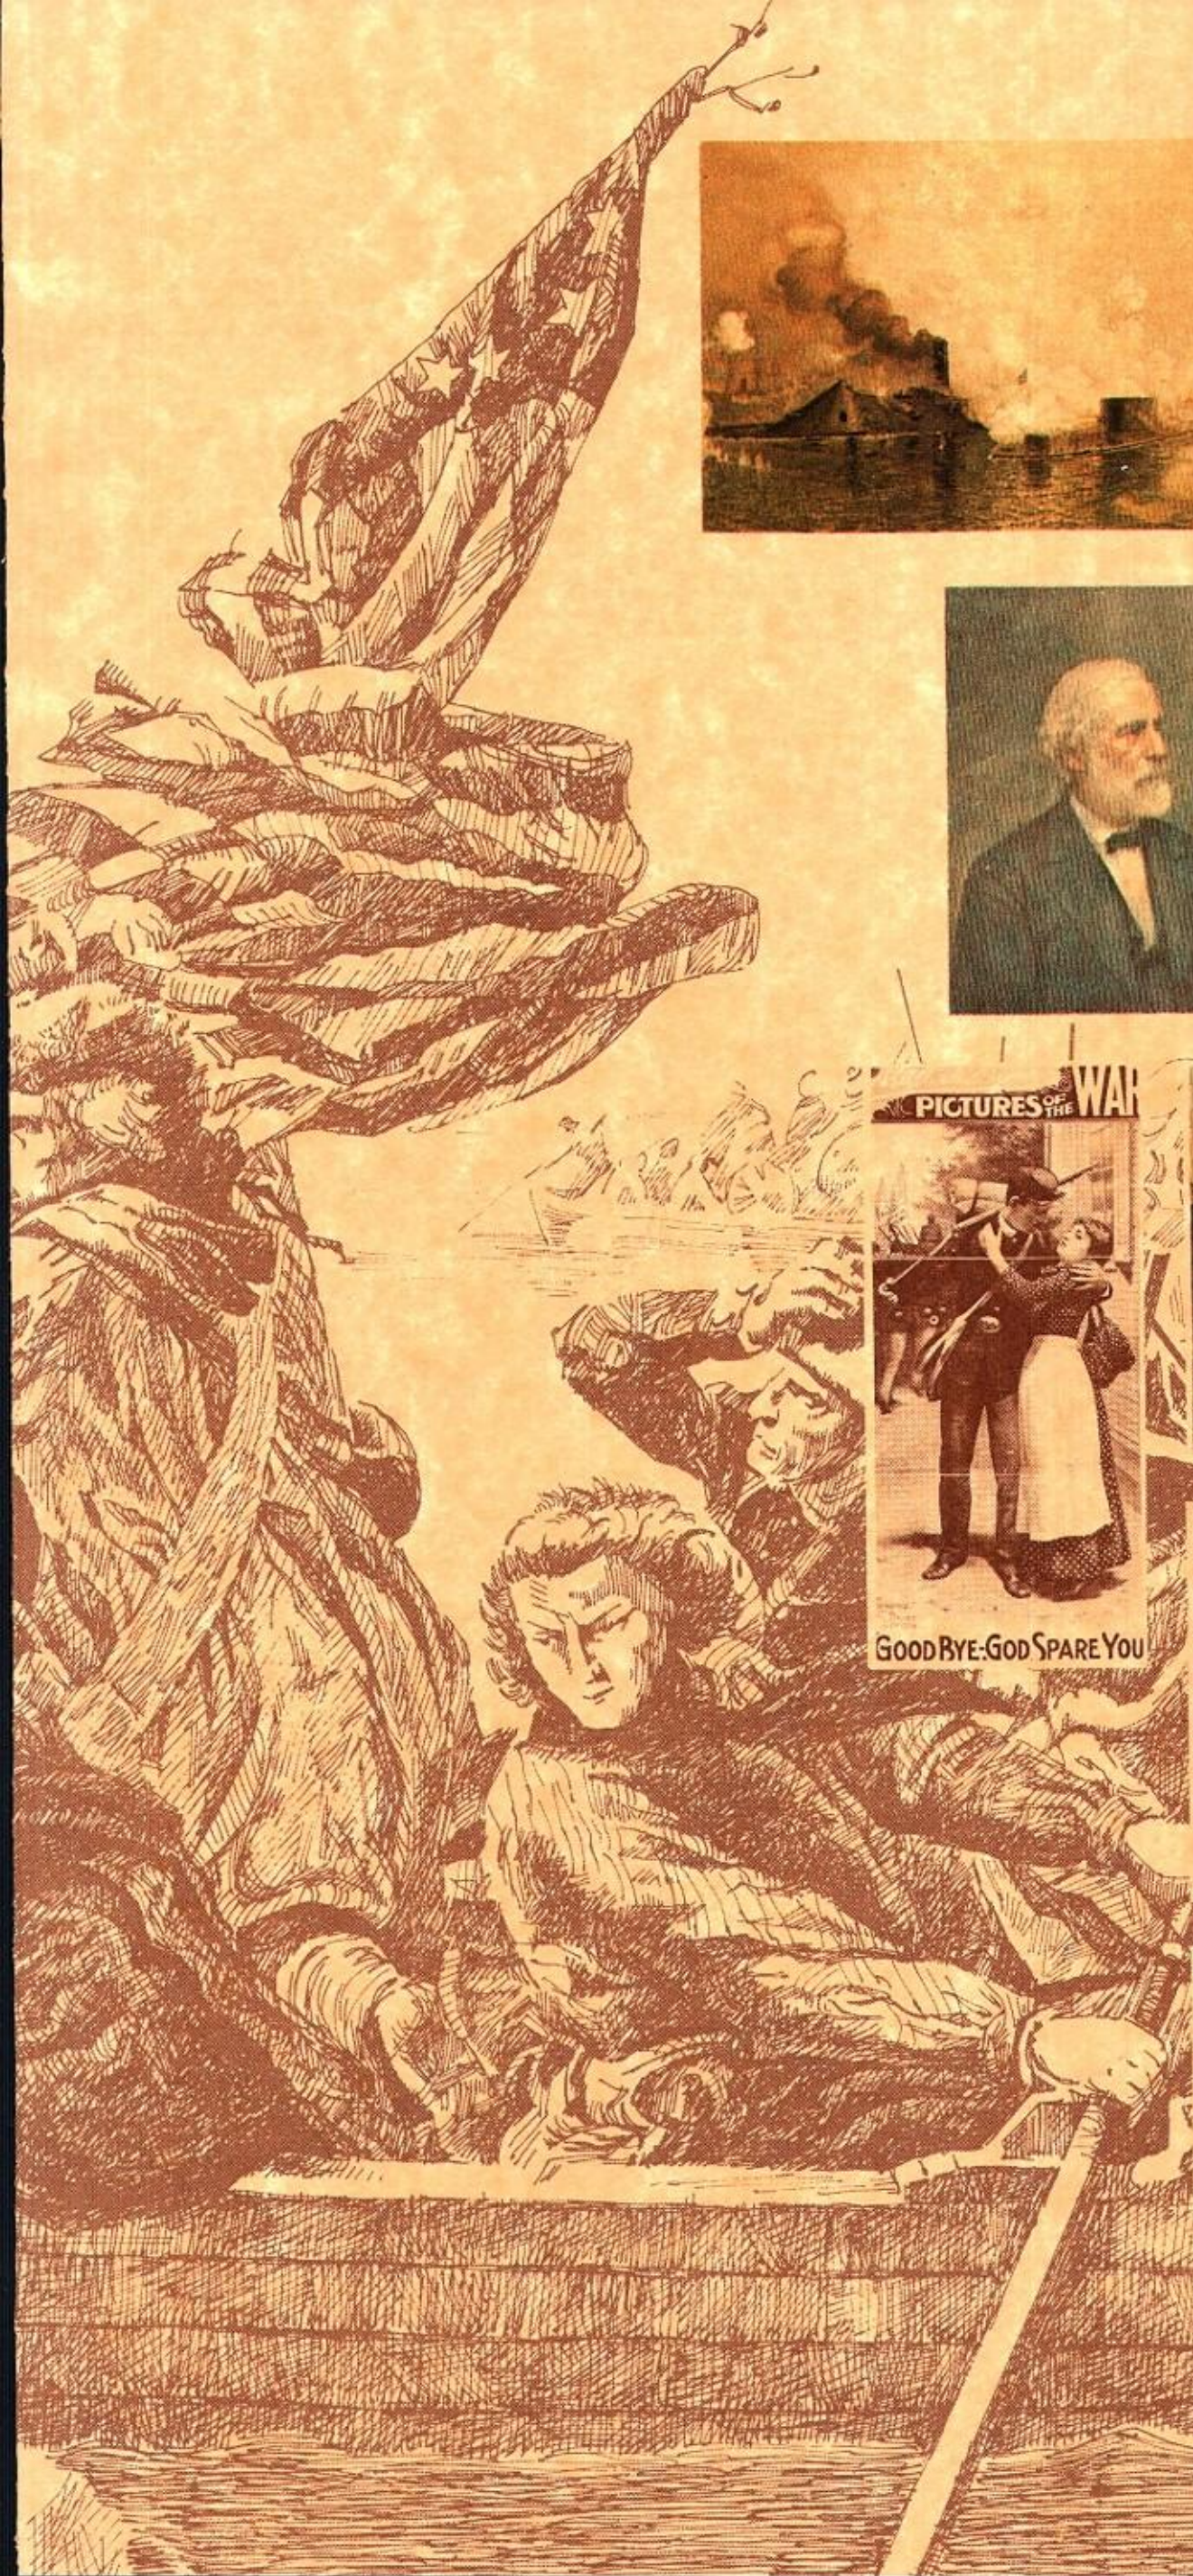

As the word spread in other parts of the world of this new country, with its vast domain and resources, thousands of immigrants poured in to start a new life. With the added growth of population, new frontiers were needed. This stretching brought new conflicts with foreign powers who previously had laid claim to parts of the interior.

As the gangling country continued to grow, internal disagreement erupted into a battle of economic and philosophical differences. The battle was to leave scars which would heal only after generations had passed. Out of the wounds came a stronger fiber of freedom for the individual man. The country had survived as a unit and now its energies would be put to work in rebuilding the founding fathers' ideals.

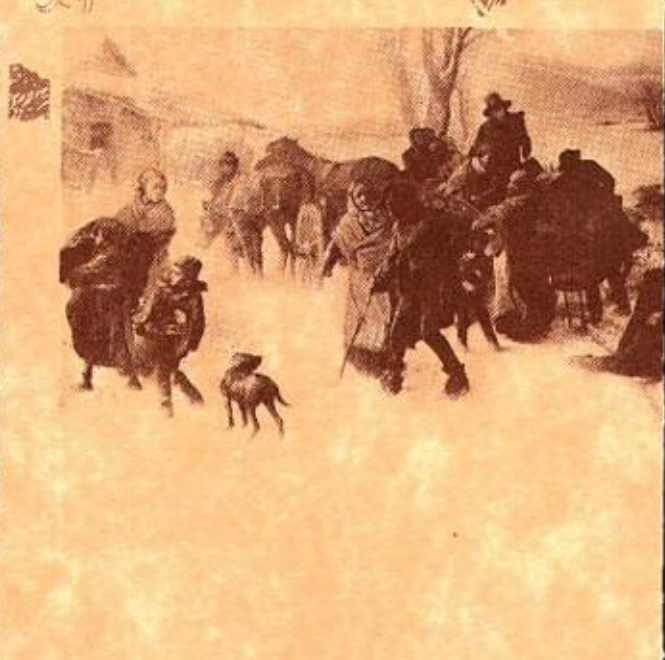

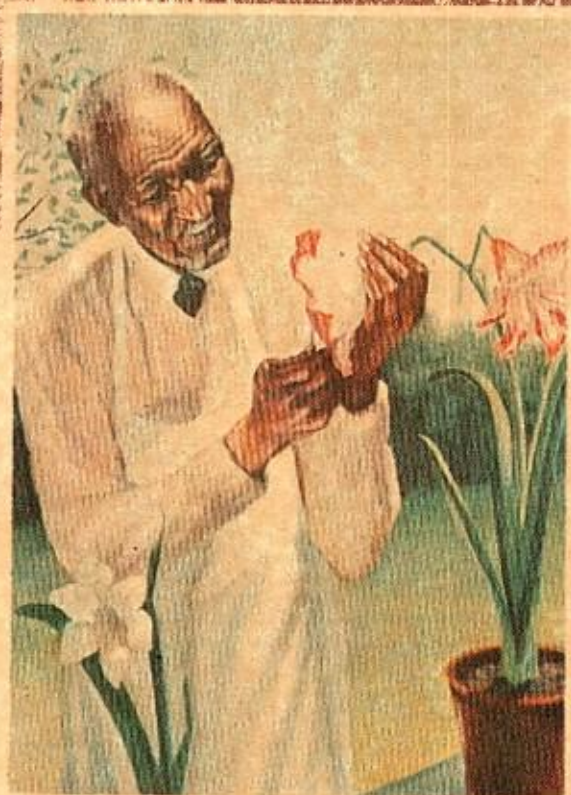

PICTURES OF THE WAR

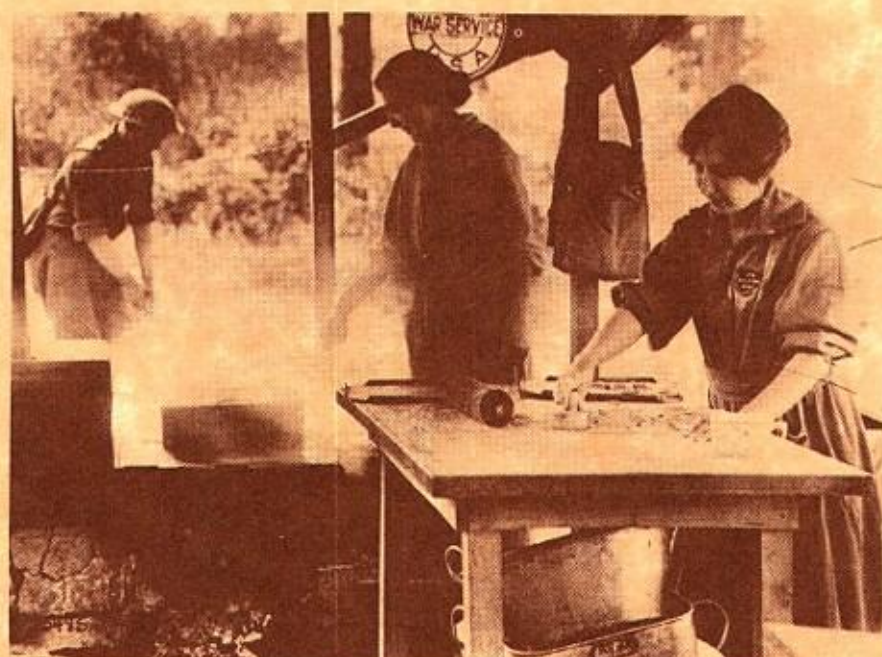

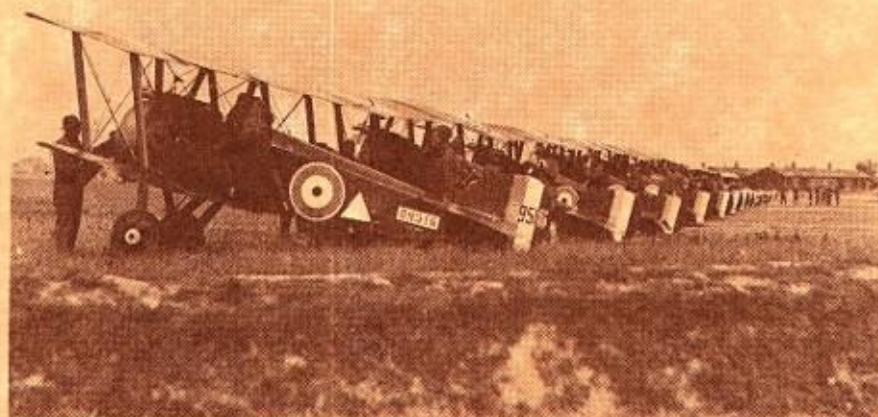

GOOD BYE-GOD SPARE YOU

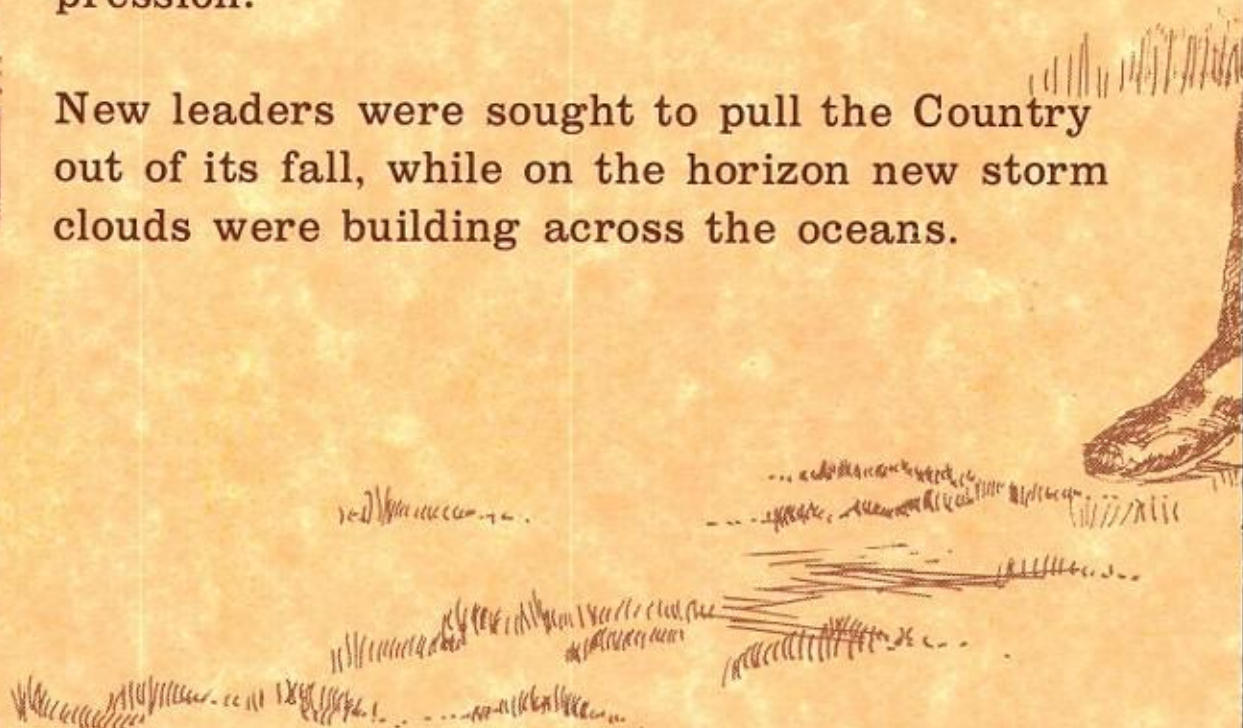

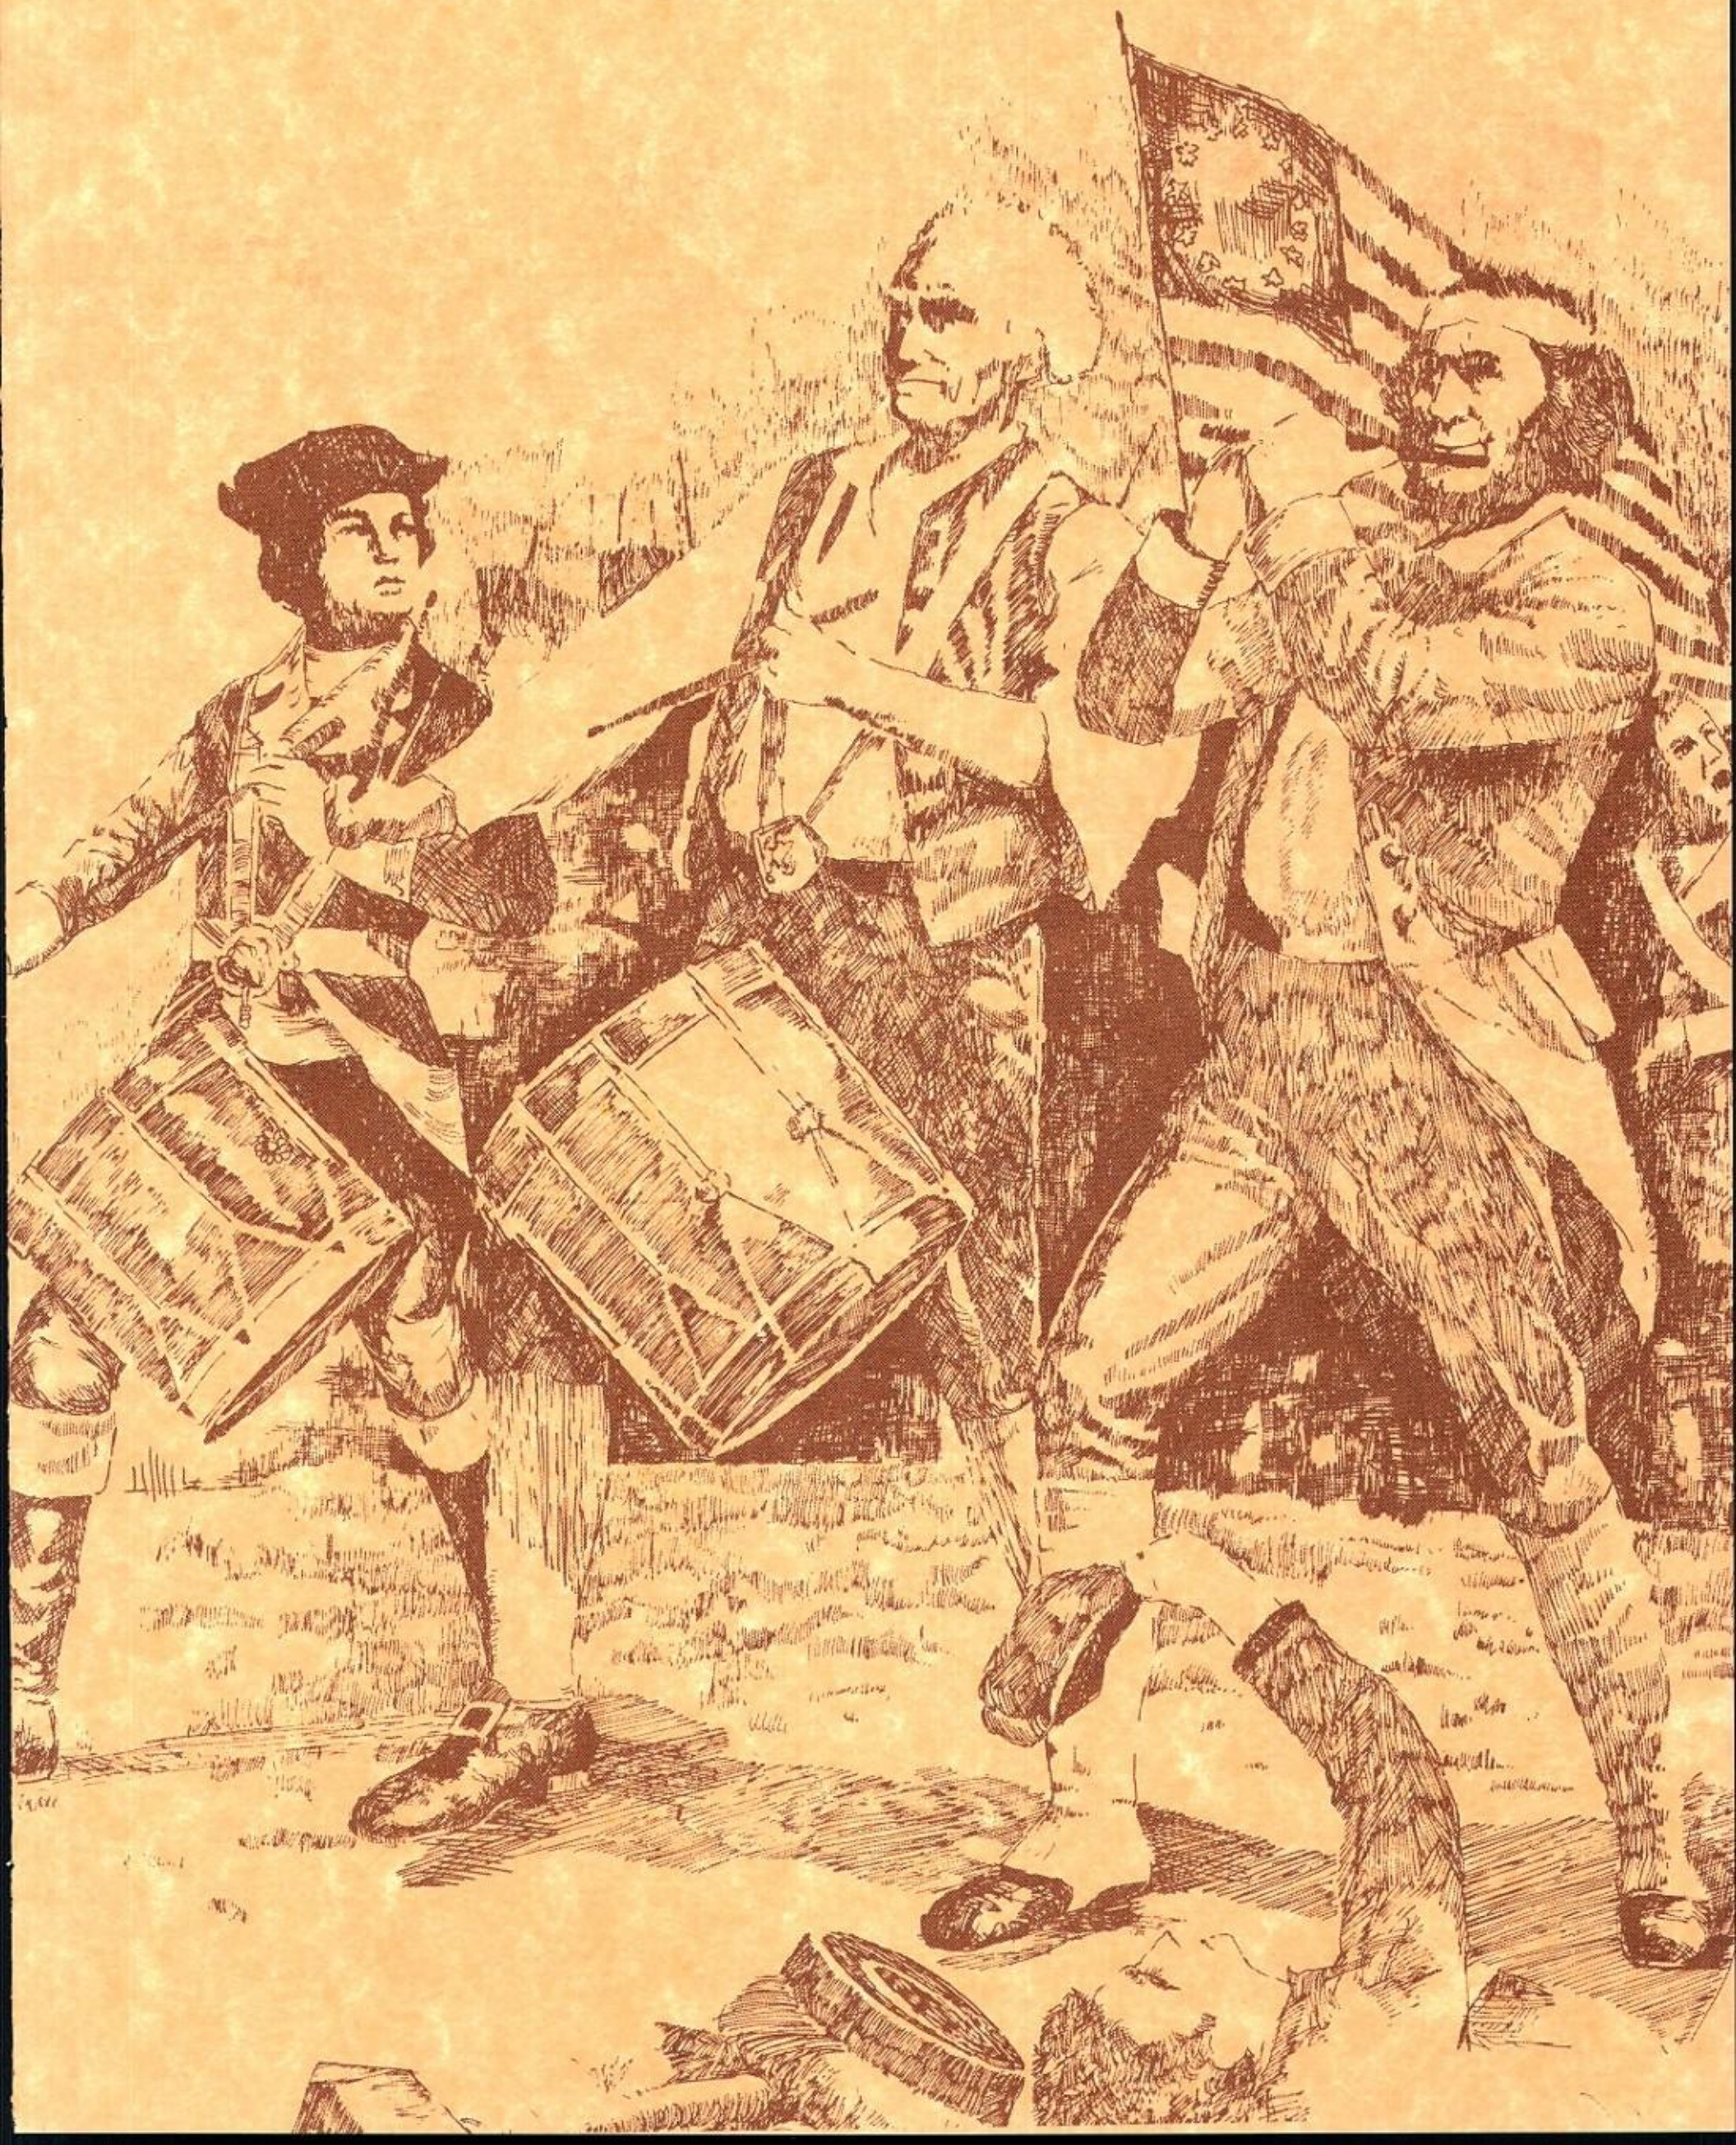

The need for new frontiers continued as movement spread West. A rapid explosion of technological advances pointed the country into the fore as an industrialized nation.

As one of the leading industrial nations, this strapping, growing giant became embroiled in the first of the World Wars. After its success with other Allied Nations, a never-before-felt boom and prosperity was followed with the shattering bust of the Great Depression.

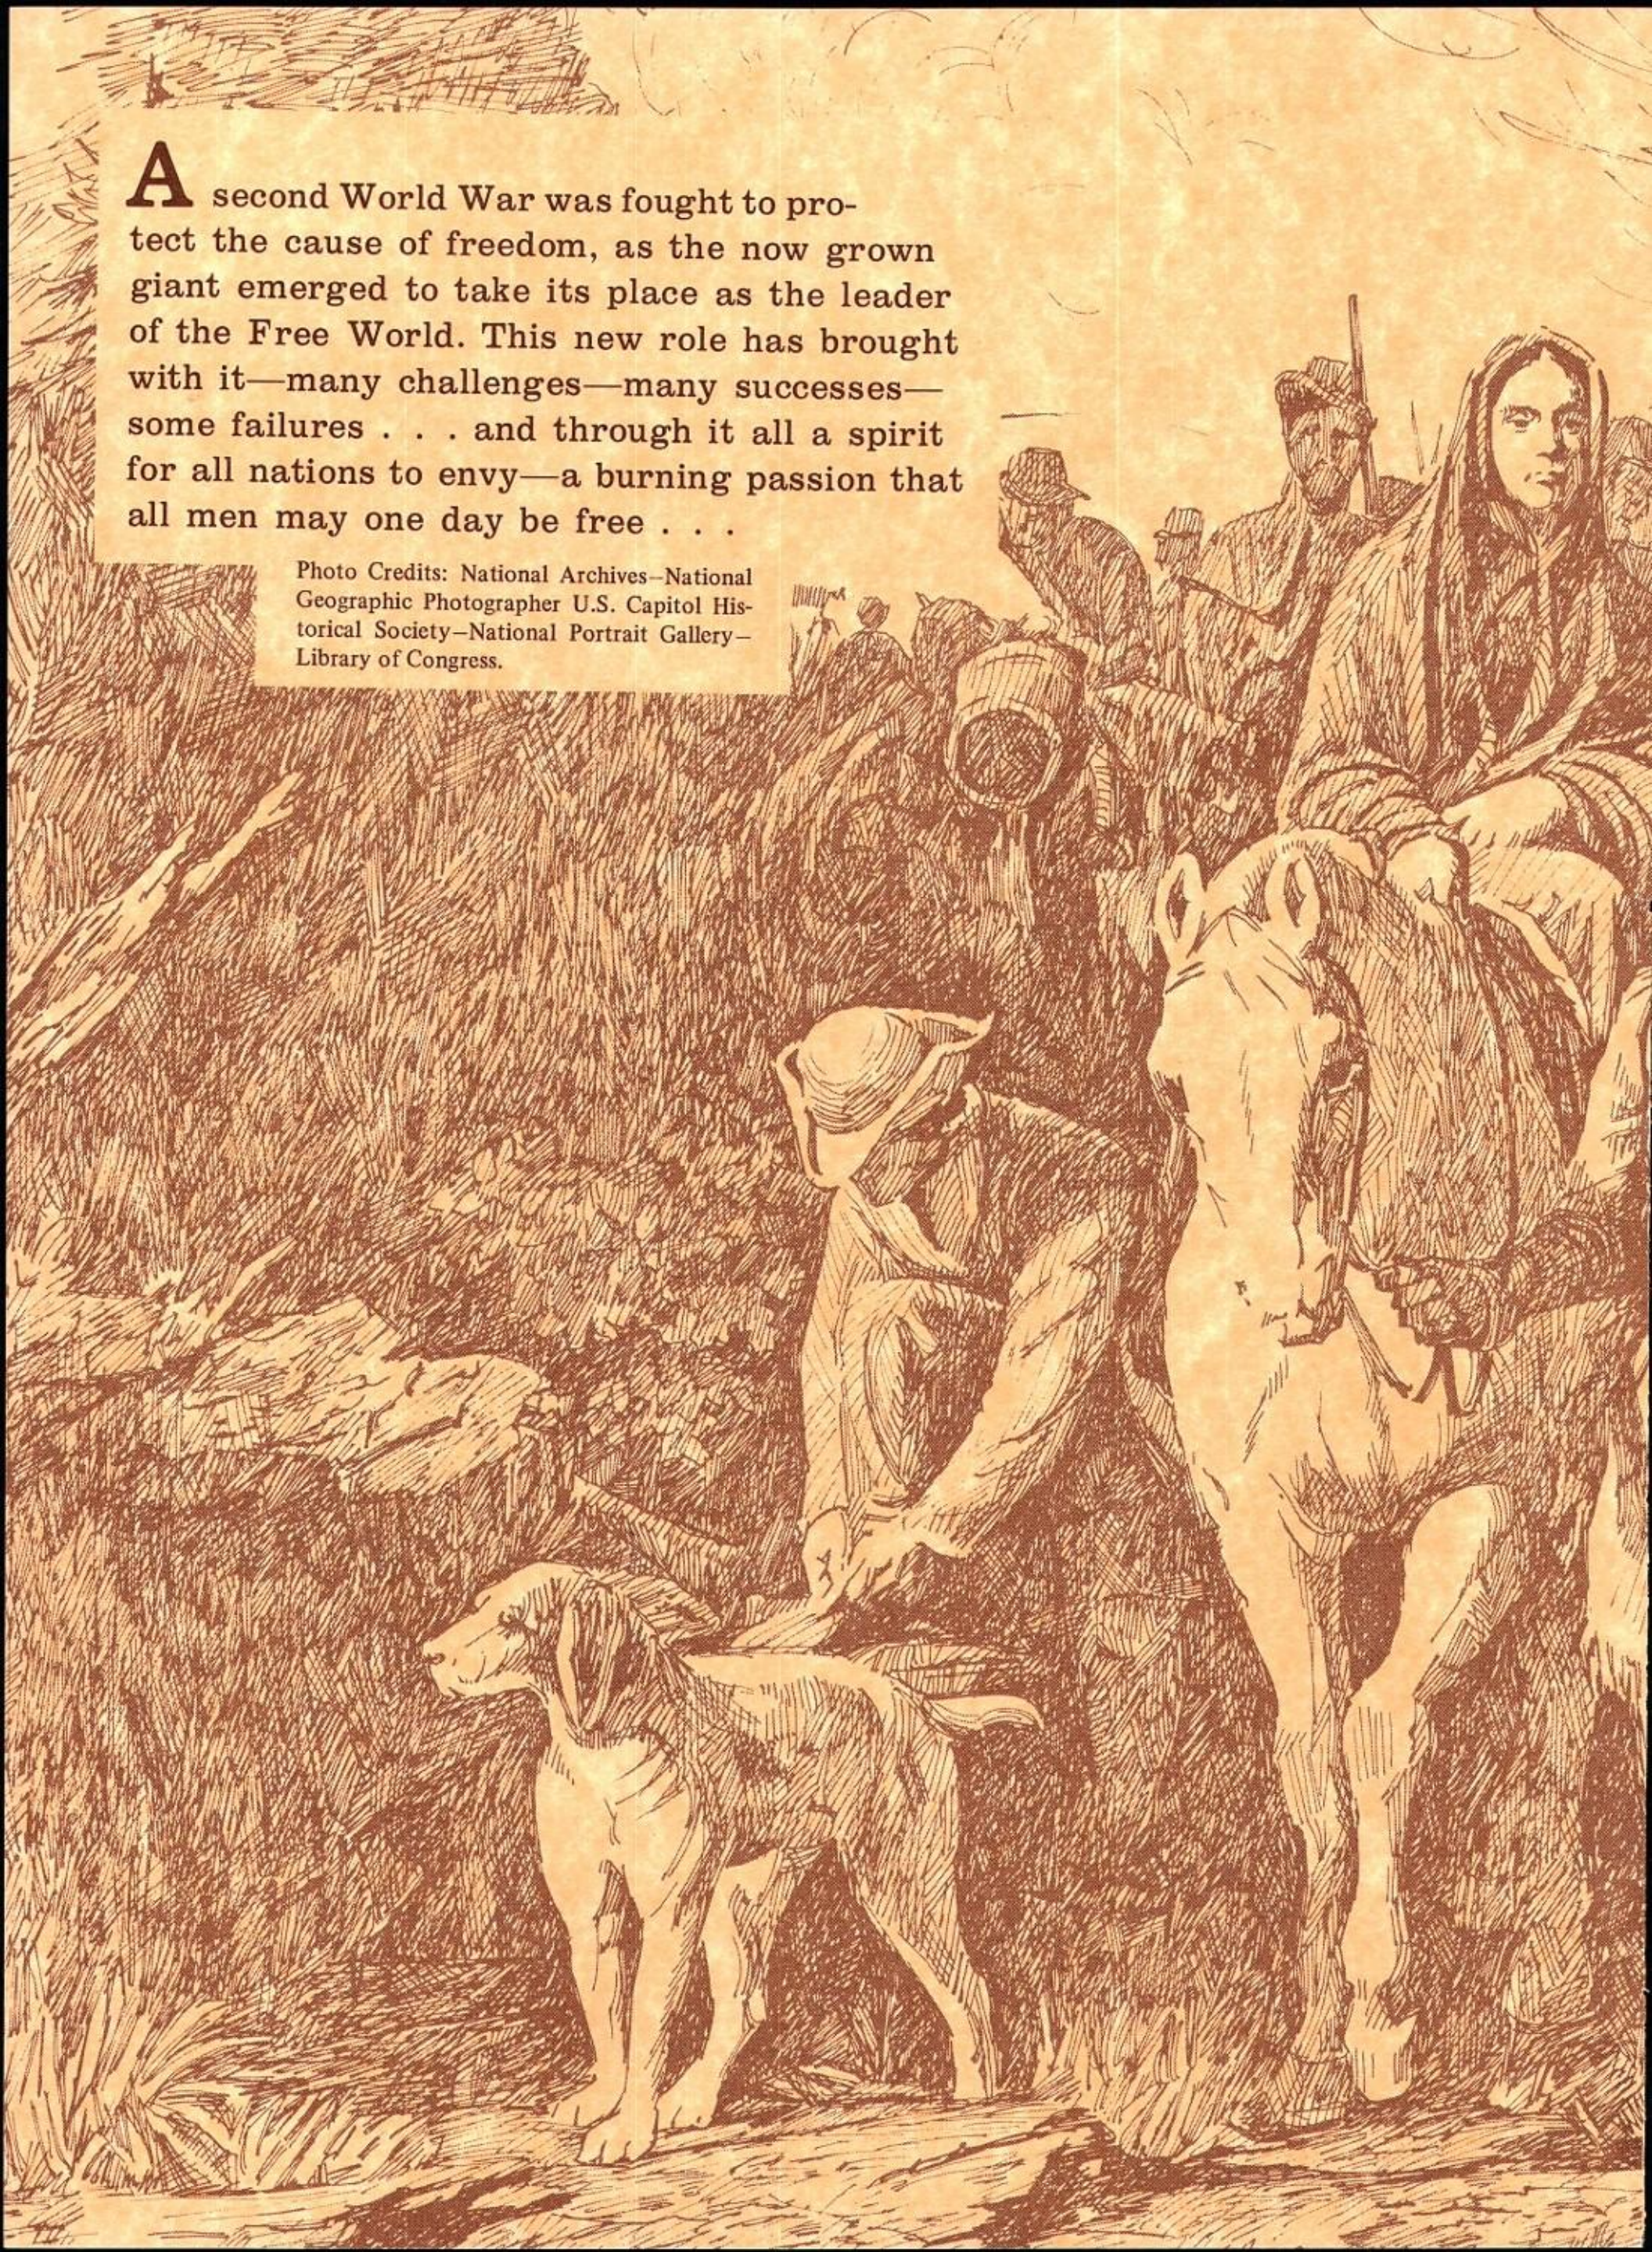

New leaders were sought to pull the Country out of its fall, while on the horizon new storm clouds were building across the oceans.

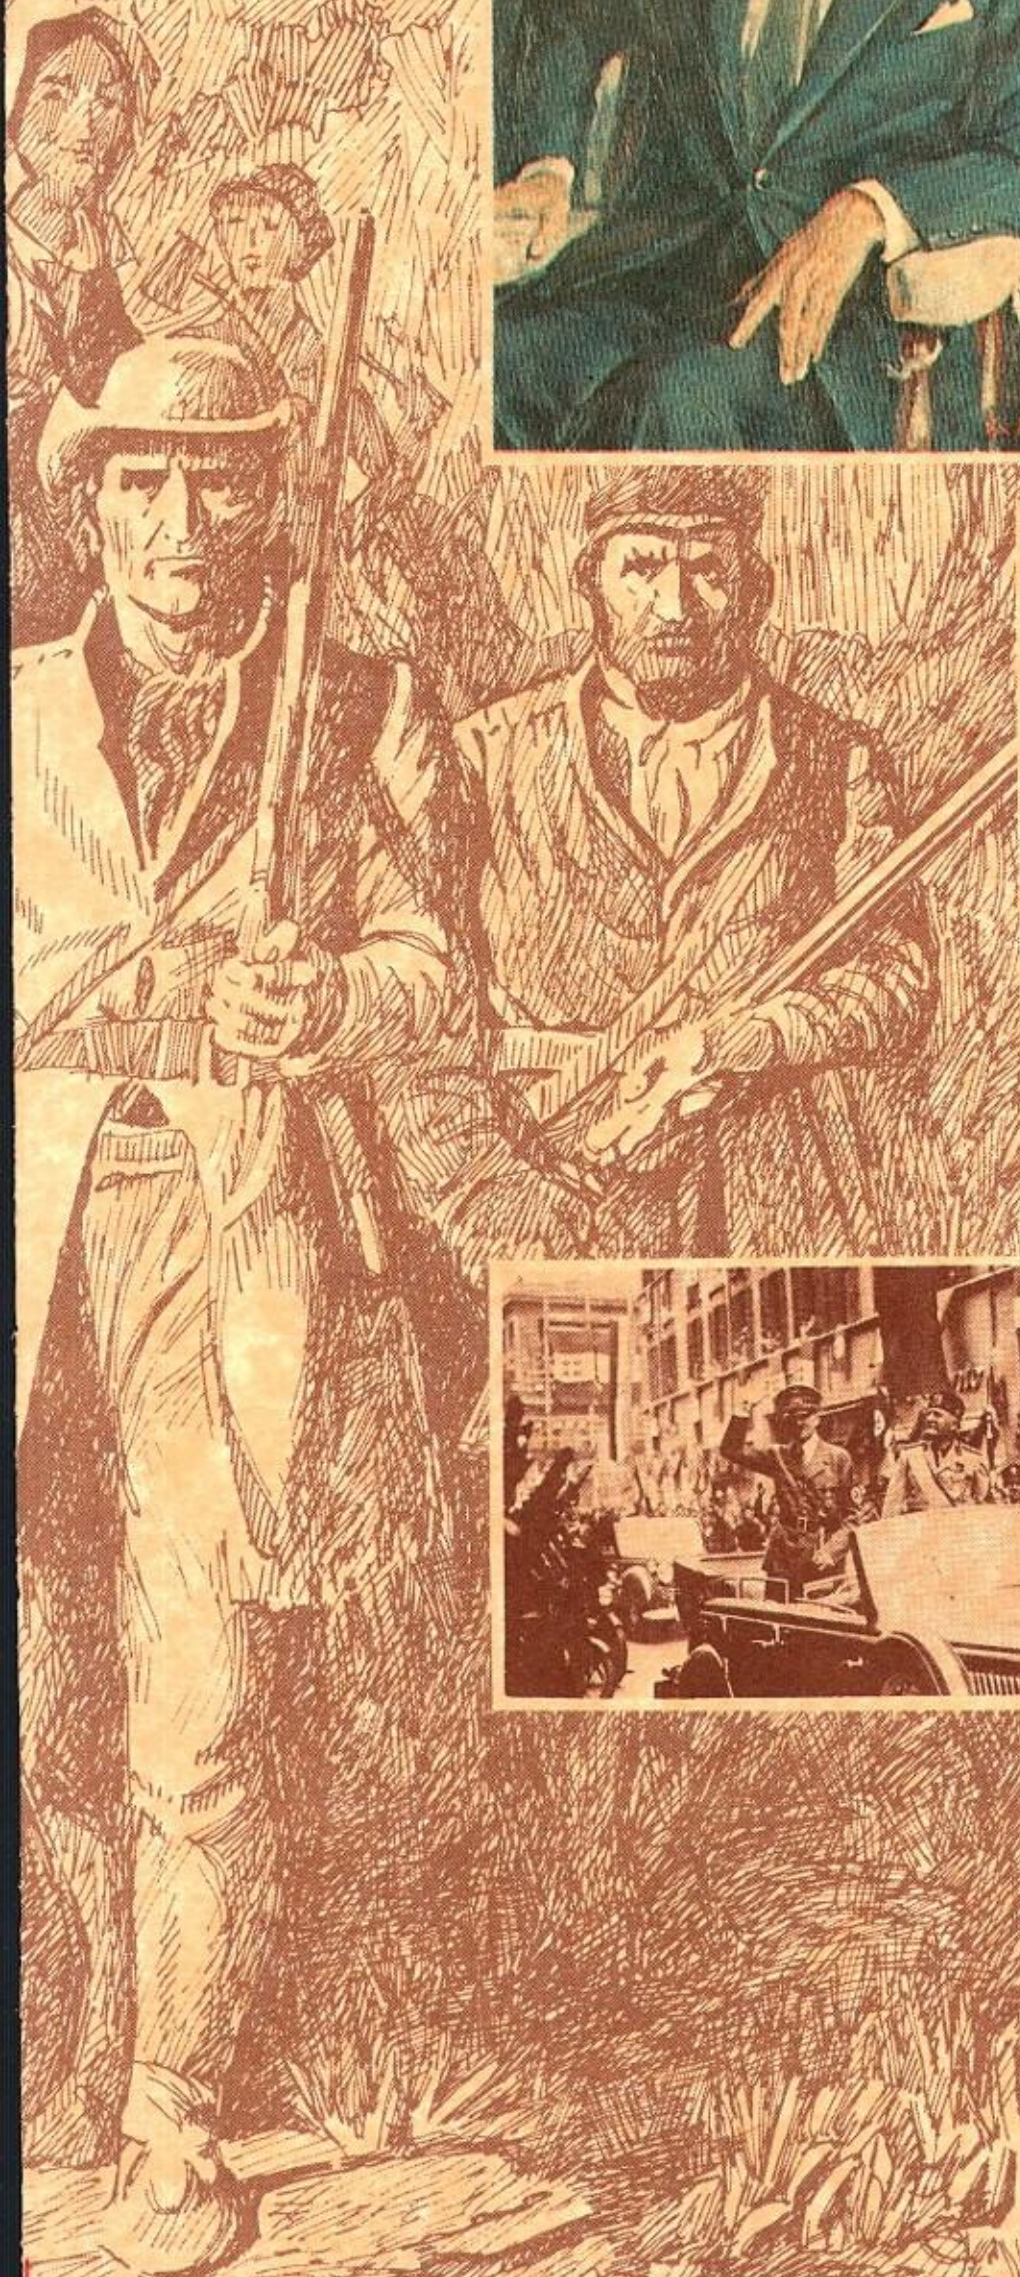

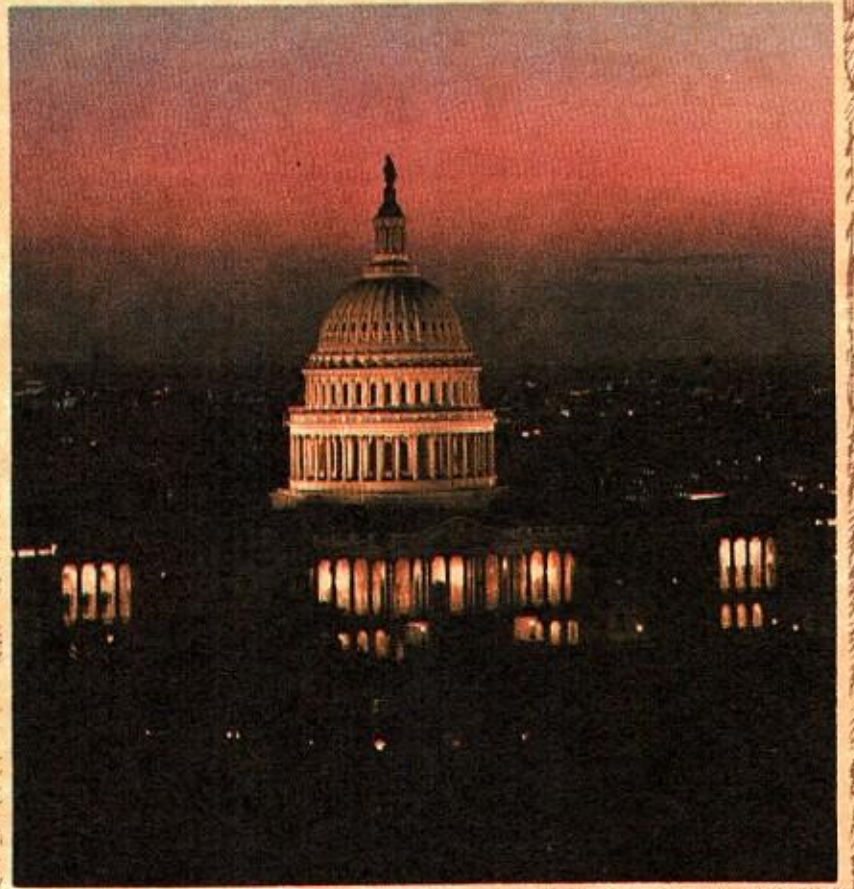

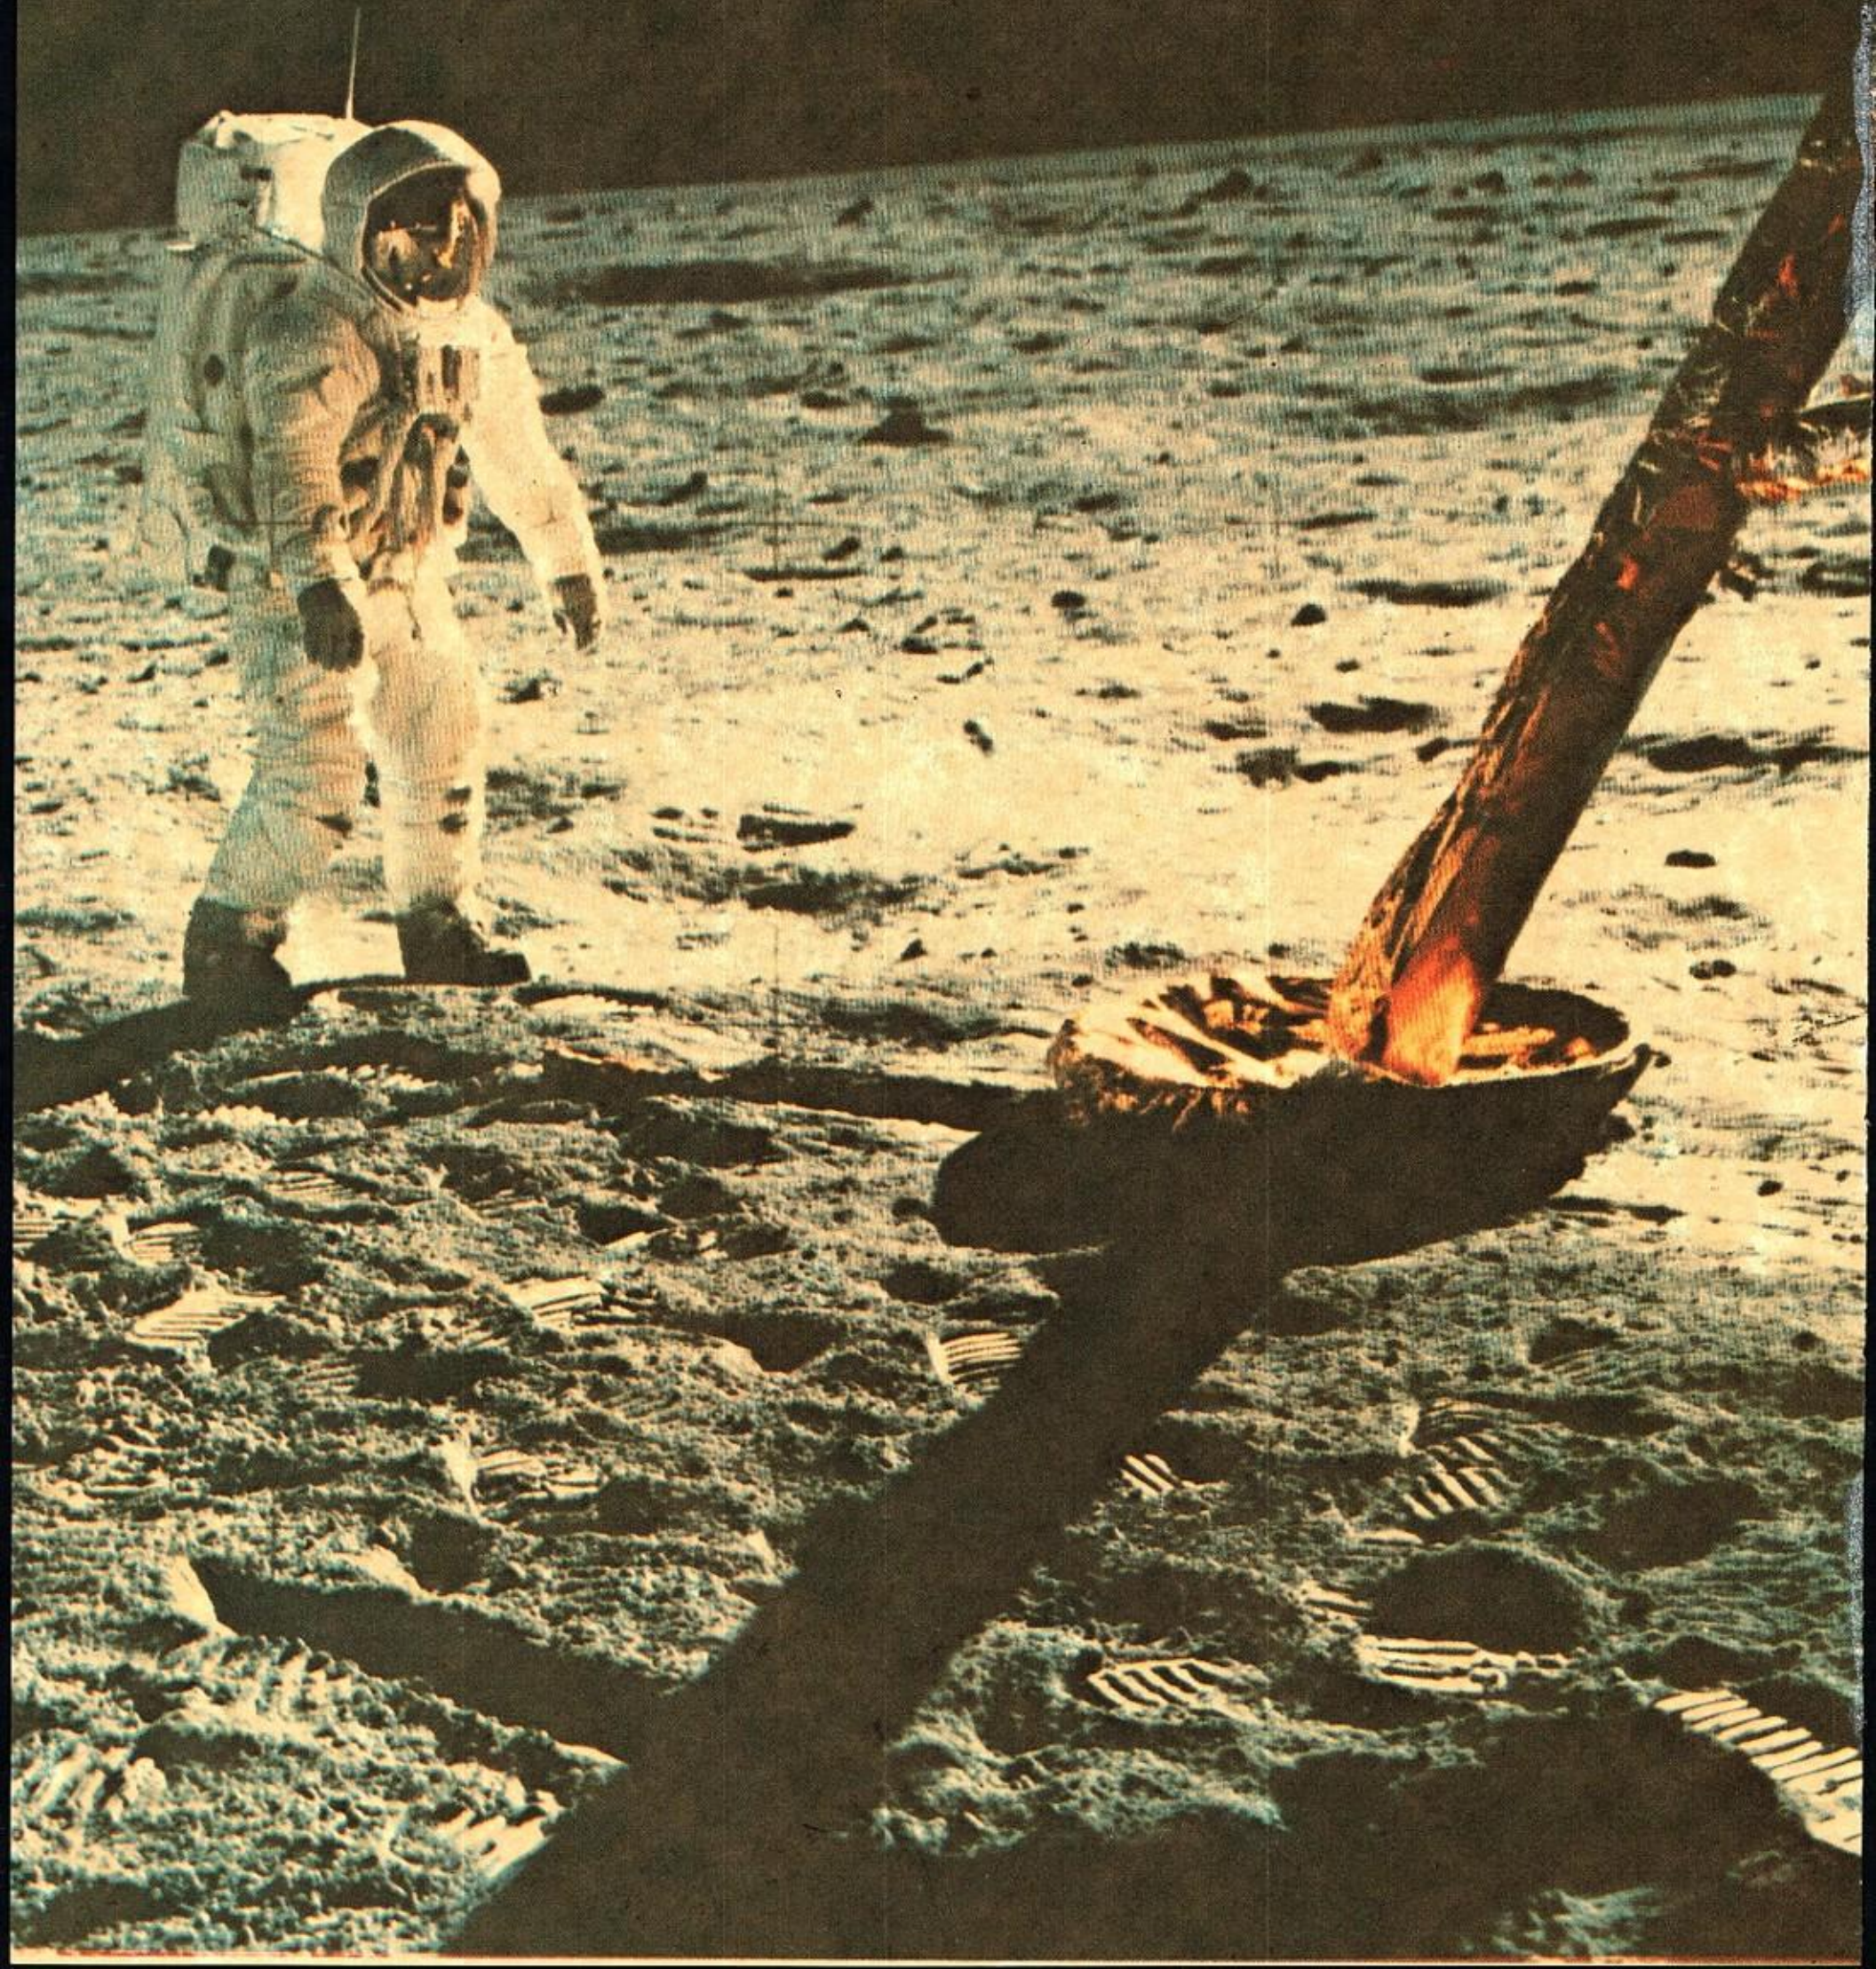

A second World War was fought to protect the cause of freedom, as the now grown giant emerged to take its place as the leader of the Free World. This new role has brought with it—many challenges—many successes—some failures . . . and through it all a spirit for all nations to envy—a burning passion that all men may one day be free . . .

The 1975-76 Yellowjacket Staff

Presents . . .

March To '76

Gridley High School Gridley, Kansas 66852

The 1975-76 Yearbook Staff is proud to dedicate the Yellowjacket to our parents: our helpers, advisors, counselors, partners, judge, and our friends.

To be fully male or fully female means to be paternal or maternal. Animals are capable of siring. Only human beings are capable of fatherhood.

Margaret Halsey

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams,
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like YOU.

Kahlil Gibran

Mother is the name for God in the lips and hearts of children.

William Makepeace Thackeray

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Proverbs 22:6

Parental trust is extremely important in the guidance of adolescent children as they get further and further away from the direct supervision of their parents and teachers. I don't mean that trust without clear guidance is enough, but guidance without trust is worthless.

Benjamin Spock

The best brought-up children are those who have seen their parents as they are. Hypocrisy is not the parent's first duty.

George Bernard Shaw

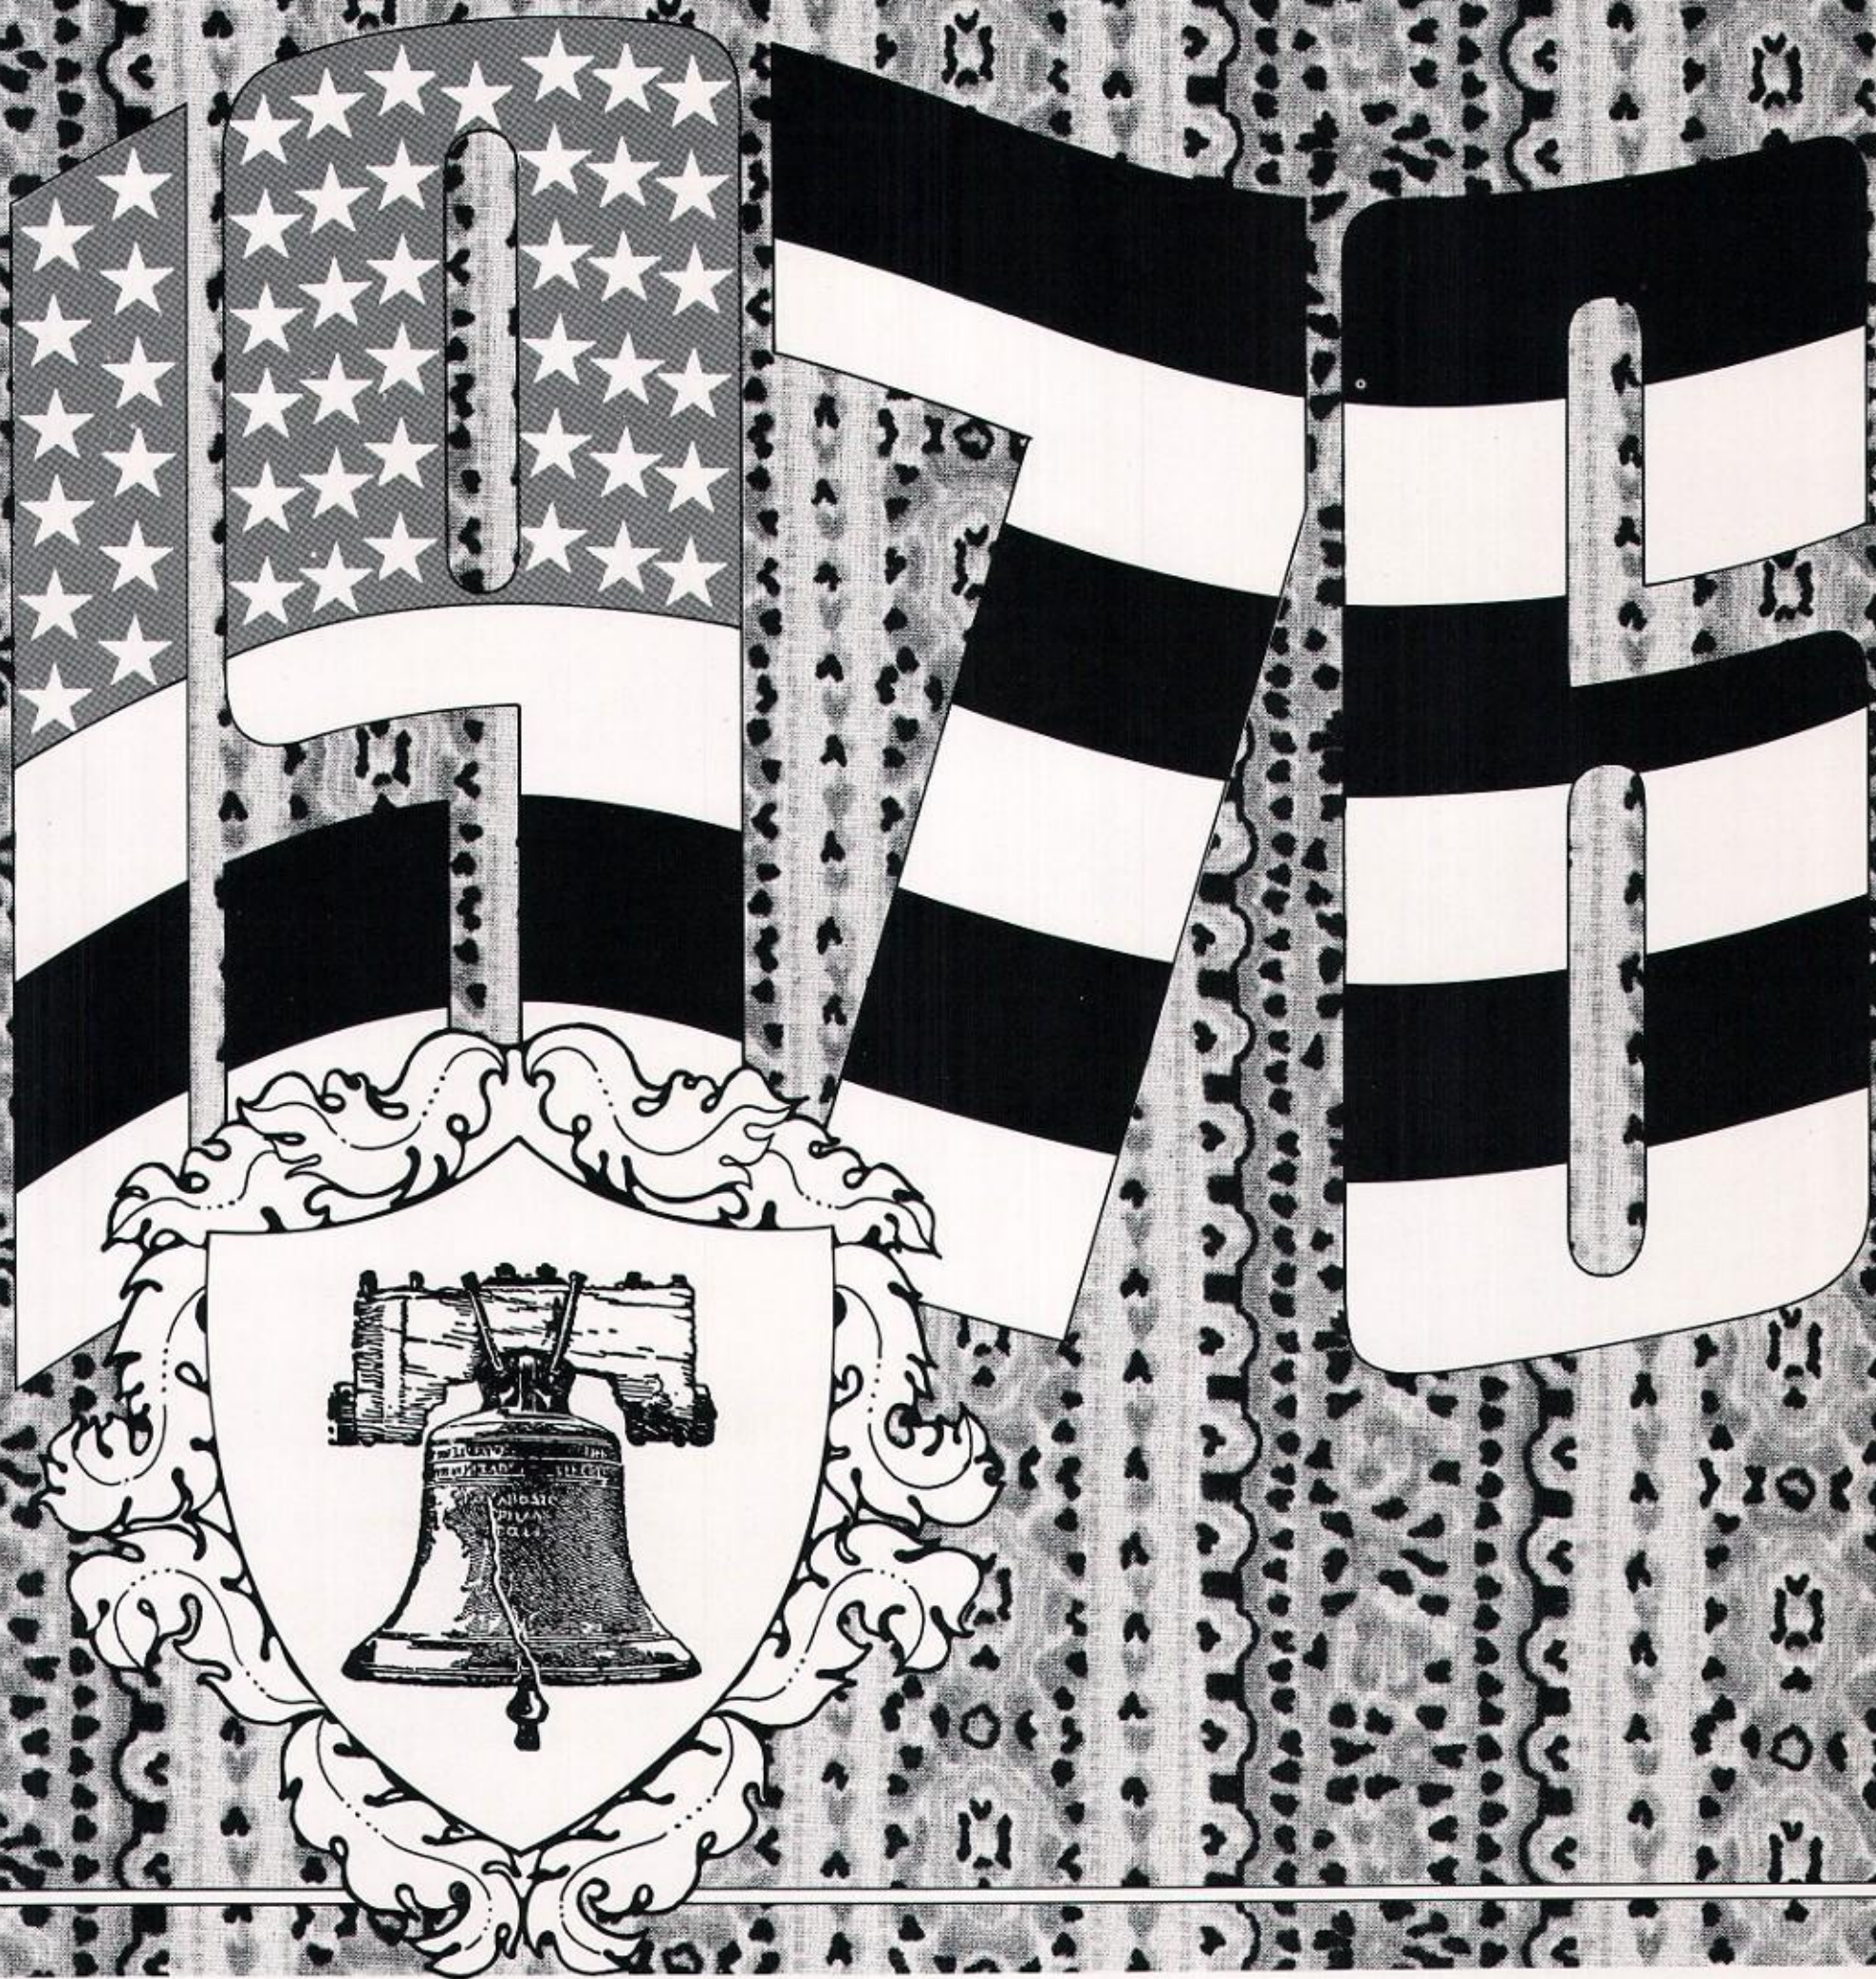

The joys of parents are secret, and so are their griefs and fears.

Francis Bacon

Families are the most beautiful things in all the world.

Louisa May Alcott

Your way of giving is more important than what you give.
Vietnamese Proverb

Seniors

Senior Will

Being of sound mind (our opinion) and of being of the most profound famous class of G.H.S. in all aspects: academic, athletic, and cultural, we wish to will the following worthy and valuable assets:

I, Pam Osborn, will my ability to be the senior class mother hen to Roberta Rodgers.

I, Mike Richards, will to Bob Lingenfelter the ability to be at constant war with Rene' Rich. I have enjoyed it immensely.

I, Phyllis Morrow, will my tiring and rewardless position as piano accompanist to Amy Mudge.

I, Doug Collins, will my ability to mouth off to Coach Fragale and get away with it to Rod Beyer. Watch out for Fragale's sneak attack.

I, Terri Moore, will my great athletic ability to Jodi Bahr; my No. 53 shirt to Rene' Rich; and my charm to David Kraft.

I, Rita Moore, will my extra loud mouth I inherited from Cheryl Osborn last year to a certain junior girl. Now she can be three times as loud.

I, Robin Rich, will my over-abundance of boy friends to Linda Domes and to Elizabeth Eccles.

I, Janice Mazingo, will my beloved pink shower cap, which I got from Osby, to Kevin Lingenfelter. Then he can keep his long beautiful locks dry.

I, Barbara Eccles, will my straight, red hair to Elizabeth Eccles; and my ability to set the football field on fire to Rene' Rich.

I, Danny Birk, will my helmet to David Shepherd in order to give it a break.

I, Philip Beyer, will my snare drum to Tom Birk so he can go stand on a corner and beat it.

We, Terri, Dee Ann, and Robin, will our "Rainbow T-shirts" to Gridley High because that's where "good things are goin' on."

I, Paul Book, Jr., will my ability to grow a goatee for a week to Kevin Beyer; and my lucky No. 7 locker to whoever needs such luck.

I, Garth Mudge, will all the pencils I pick up around the school to whoever writes a lot.

I, Mary Kraft, will to my run-around partner Vicki Beyer, the guys from Lester, Iowa. Also my locker with our famous sticker "Where in the World is Lester, Iowa?"

I, Dee Ann Kraft, will my ability to make spirit signs for the school to Teresa Watts. Comet takes off magic marker from the floor great!

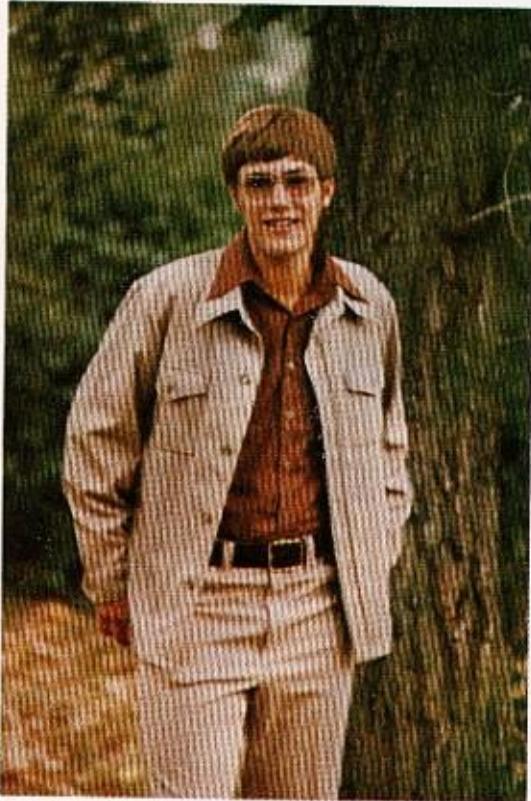

I, Steve Lingenfelter, will my sunflower seeds under my desk in the back of the English room to Mr. Eye. Chew them in good health.

I, Keith Birk, will my favorite parking spot in front of the school to Chris Birk. Just don't park too close to Coach Fragale.

I, Scott Birk, will all those long, tiring hours in the darkroom to whoever will take them off my hands. Please hurry!

I, Diann Elliott, will my ability to roam the halls to Sam Bahr. Also, my great height to Lenita, and my speed in track to whoever works hardest for it.

Champions

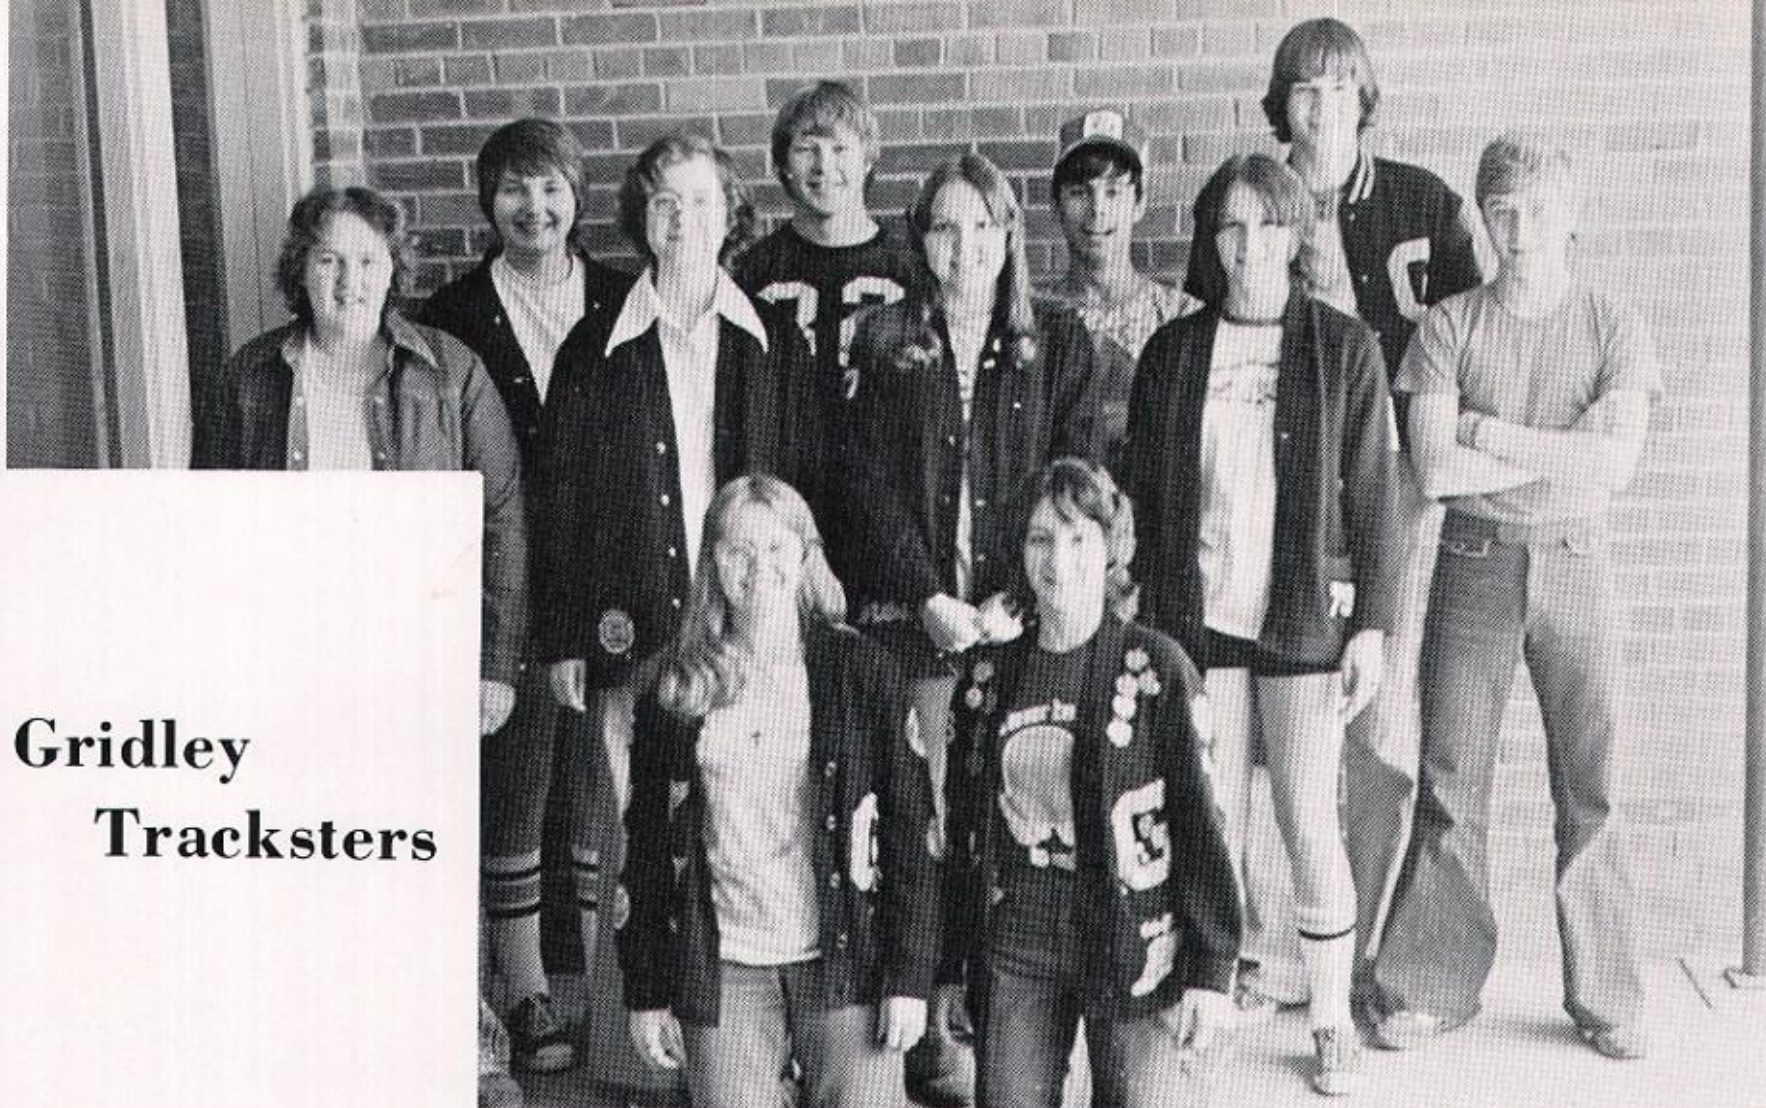

Unity Hardwork Sacrifice

That was the theme of the Gridley Yellowjackets this year. Under new head coach John Fragale and assistant coach Ray Anderson the Jackets had there first undefeated season since 1953. In doing so the Jackets won the Marais de Cygnes football conference, a rating of 6th in the state, and a trip to the state play-offs.

The Yellowjackets dominated league play, averaging over 40 points a game while holding their opponents to a 12 point average.

Gridley placed 7 players on the all conference first team and 4 more on the second team. Coach Fragale speaking about his players said he has never met or probably never will meet a better bunch of boys than we had this year. They did everything I ask of them and more, they wanted to win and they did! We had a heck of a season, a season we can be proud of and one that will always be remembered!

Our Town

The Senior Class of Gridley High presented "Our Town" to the community on April 9, 1976. It was the first time a serious drama had been performed as a class play. The Seniors worked very hard, under the direction of Anthony Eye, to make the play a success. The play helped finance the Senior Sneak.

Senior

At 4:30 A.M. Seniors and Sponsors embarked for the Sneak of 1976. Leaving decorations on the Gridley campus and arriving at 10:30 at the Ozarks, room keys were given to the occupants. Swimming and shopping kept all busy during the afternoon. Evening hours were spent cruising with "Larry Don" in the moonlight. Clapping our hands at the Ozark Opry, touring the cave of the Winds, & going to church, occupied our time until we left at 9:30 A.M. Monday and safely arrived in Gridley at 4:30 P.M.
